

Berlin Position Is Same

Link Problem To Germany's Whole Future

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today the United States fully intends to maintain its position on Berlin. But he would not say for what period of time that policy will prevail.

Rusk said the Berlin problem must be looked at in the context of the whole problem of Germany's future.

He declined to discuss either the specific issue of a troop cut in Berlin or the general problems of a broad German settlement, indicating these are under review.

At a news conference, the second he has held since taking office Jan. 20, Rusk also made these other points mainly in response to specific questions:

1. A very serious situation would be created if the Red China issue in the United Nations resulted in receiving Chinese Communist representatives and ousting Chinese Nationalists on the ground that the matter was purely a credentials question. Rusk said that actually the matter of Red Chinese membership is a problem of far-reaching political importance.

2. The United States, Britain and the Soviet Union should be able to reach agreement on a treaty banning nuclear weapons tests if negotiations, resuming March 21, are conducted on all sides in good faith. Rusk said the United States is determined to conclude a pact if possible; he said it must be one which protects the security interests of the United States.

3. The crisis in Laos is still under negotiation among the interested governments, which include the Soviet Union. Rusk denied there is a real stalemate though he conceded in response to questions that the Soviet airlift is continuing to supply Communist rebel forces and a substantial amount of arms has been built up.

4. The U.S. government understands and sympathizes with the deep concern of the people in Scotland who have been protesting against the servicing of U.S. nuclear submarines at Holy Loch.

The difficulty, Rusk said is that such developments as the Holy Loch base are related to the security and defense of the free world. As to U.S.-British governmental relations on the use of Holy Loch as an American nuclear submarine servicing position, Rusk said they are in good order.

To Attend Confab

MARSHALL, Mo. (AP) — William W. Marshall, new chairman of the Missouri Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, is enroute to Washington for conferences concerning ASC operations in Missouri.

He will confer with Department of Agriculture officials and Sens. Stuart Symington and Edward Long.

Warren Quits Primary Race For Council

One Sedalian withdrew from the primary race for the city council Wednesday, and another decided to withdraw, then changed his mind and vowed to "make a good race out of it."

A. B. Warren, 2209 West First Street Terrace, has withdrawn as a candidate for nomination as councilman from the first ward. Thus, Democratic Councilman Earl Paxton's opposition is reduced to Harry Burford and Robert J. Bader, both Democrats, and Republican Charles Bass.

Warren, a Democrat whose name had been filed by druggist William Couhig, said there were no particular reasons for his withdrawal.

The wavering candidate was Cleo M. Cecil, who had a change of heart. Cecil, a Republican, of 1314 East 13th, is seeking the nomination in the third ward over three Democrats, Lawrence Koeller, Lawrence Randall and Carl R. Walker.

Cecil said Wednesday night there was no particular reason for his near-decision to drop out, but he simply changed his mind. He said that he "is going to run and will make a good race out of it."

No Comment On Signing Of Document

Red-held Pilots Reportedly Signed 'Legal Documents'

WASHINGTON — (AP) Pentagon was still mum today on just what kind of papers two air force RB47 fliers signed while Russian prisoners.

A question about the fliers was turned aside abruptly by President Kennedy Wednesday at his news conference.

In brief, there is still no indication as to whether the so-called legal documents signed by Capt. Freeman B. Olmstead and John McKone would be of propaganda value to the Russians if released.

The two were shot down last July 1 while on a reconnaissance mission.

Eight questions on the current status of the fliers and their behavior as prisoners were submitted to the Air Force Monday.

When pressed for answers, an Air Force spokesman said the questions had been removed from their jurisdiction by the Department of Defense. Later, he said he had reason to believe the questions had been relayed to the White House.

While the two fliers said in an interview last Friday at Forbes Air Force Base near Topeka, Kan., they had given the Russians only their name, rank and serial number, they did acknowledge signing papers they described as legal.

When asked if they had given any other information to the Russian interrogators, Olmstead replied, "this is something that at present we are not able to discuss."

Minor Injuries For 2 As Plane Noses Over Here

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Fletcher, Des Moines, Ia., escaped with minor hurts about 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon when their light plane nosed over at the Sedalia Memorial Airport in an attempted take-off. Several hundred dollars in damage resulted to the plane.

A gust of wind struck the plane as it started up the runway, swerved it to the left and caused it to nose over on its back when the landing wheels struck soft mud. A "stiff" cross-wind had been blowing across the runway. It was estimated the sudden gust was blowing about 40 miles per hour.

Fletcher said that when the gust hit he immediately shut off his engine and tried to bring the plane to a stop but the wind carried it off the runway. The wing struts, one wing and the propeller were damaged. The plane is a Sessna 182 Skylane.

Mrs. Fletcher suffered several scratches on her legs and Fletcher received a scratch on his head.

They had planned to take off and fly to Little Rock, Ark., where Mr. Fletcher was to attend a meeting. They left by train, Wednesday evening for Kansas City, and from there went to Little Rock by commercial airline.

In Sedalia they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Warren Parks, 1321 South Barrett.

The plane is to be repaired at the local airport by John Reine. Police Officer Charles Knapp, who was at the airport, witnessed the accident and drove his patrol car to the scene and assisted Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher.

If you fail to receive your Democrat, please call FA 6-1000 for special delivery before 6:30 p.m.

Area Men Voice Opposition To Savings Time Bill

G. W. Gunn, manager of the Drive-In Theatre, Sedalia; Gene Sappington, Clinton, and Hal McClure, Warrensburg, were among area citizens attending a legislative hearing to voice opposition to the proposed enactment of House Bill No. 322 in favor of Daylight Savings time for all Missouri. Twenty-five others appeared and also strongly opposed mandatory state-wide daylight savings time.

Jobless Pay Tops $92,000 For Sedalia

The Sedalia office of the Unemployment Security Division paid out $92,643.82 in insurance benefits to jobless Sedalians in February, according to the state director of the division, Leroy Schantz.

The Clinton office paid out $31,399.28, Lexington, $85,664.00; Marshall, $85,664.63; Mexico, $66,122.01; Moberly, $64,835.24, and to persons residing in other states who earned credits in Missouri, $355,318.18.

Nearly six and a quarter million dollars in unemployment insurance benefits was paid jobless Missourians during February, Schantz reported today. He said the exact figure was $6,249,954.05, an all-time record, and is $342,667.00 greater than the next highest amount paid out in any one month, that of April, 1958.

Schantz reported the $6,249,954 in jobless benefits paid the state's unemployed during February this year is 63.5 per cent greater than the $3,823,340 paid out in February a year ago and is 8.9 per cent greater than the $5,736,966 paid in January this year.

Other high benefit payment months, he said, were March and April, 1958 with $5,623,478 and $5,907,287, respectively, and $5,302,109 in March a year ago. Payments in February, 1958 were $4,851,814 or 28.8 per cent less than in February this year.

Initial claims, often an index of new employment, were down 15,627 from January to 48,841 but

Knob Noster School Bonds To KC Firm

3.532 Per Cent Is Bid Made By G. K. Baum Co.

A Kansas City firm entered the low bid for the purchase of $225,000 worth of building bonds for the Knob Noster school district, it was announced today.

Of six firms bidding, George K. Baum and Co. entered a bid of 3.532 per cent. Other bids were: Lucas, Eisen & Waeckerley, 3.576 per cent; City National Bank & Trust Co., 3.56081 per cent; Stern Brothers and Co., 3.5996 per cent; Barret, Fitch, North & Co., 3.6196 per cent; and Commerce Trust Co., 3.65446 per cent.

"Several factors affecting the bond market worked to our disadvantage and prevented us from getting interest rates as low as some larger schools have recently negotiated," James E. Jageman, Knob Noster school superintendent said.

Adverse factors, according to Jageman, included: 1. The bond issue was comparatively small and did not demand the best possible rates. 2. The valuation is not particularly large and the community is nearing its bonding

Calls for Spending 3.25 Billion

Save the Cities Program Bill Is Sent to Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy today sent to Congress a $3.25 billion save-the-cities housing program, to be run by a proposed new cabinet-rank department of housing and urban affairs.

In a special 10-point message Kennedy called for prompt housing legislation to spur the economy and reinforce the cities in their "desperate struggle against blight and decay."

Housing Administrator Robert C. Weaver, who presumably will become the first Negro cabinet member of his housing agencies are wrapped together as an 11th department, said drafts of the whole package of legislation will be laid before Congress this month.

While stressing the need to spur homebuilding as a stimulant to jobs and income, Kennedy's 10,000-word message was aimed chiefly at helping the middle-income and lower-income city dweller rather than the two-car suburbanite.

The highlights included: A four-year, $2.5 billion authorization for urban renewal grants and loans.

A test program of 40-year mortgages—with no down-payment—for low cost dwellings, under the Federal Housing Administration loan insurance program.

A go-ahead for construction of 100,000 public housing units, in perhaps three years. Half would be earmarked and specially built for the elderly.

A major expansion of FHA's program of home improvement loans, to make this device possible the major vehicle of the drive to upgrade decaying neighborhoods and modernize the nation's housing inventory.

The five-year limit and $3,500 ceiling on FHA repair and modernization loans would be greatly increased, Weaver indicated, and some new types of home-improvement credit never before made available may be devised.

Kennedy said the problem of cities and their suburbs should be "constantly brought to the cabinet table" and deserve leadership at the top level of government.

He told Congress: "I therefore recommend—and shall shortly offer a suggested proposal for—the establishment in the executive branch of a new, cabinet-rank department of housing and urban affairs."

This left wide open the question whether he would ask Congress to act by its normal procedures, or would short-cut the process by issuing a presidential reorganization plan, subject to congressional veto, under reorganization powers which Congress is now weighing.

Dalton Seeking Funds to Get Tax Gears Going

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—Gov. John M. Dalton today asked the legislature for an immediate appropriation of $48,720 to get his withholding system of collecting the state income tax in gear July 1.

He said the money is needed for the manpower and supplies to notify employers throughout the state what forms to use in withholding taxes for their employees. The system will be part of the present income tax section of the Department of Revenue.

The governor told newsmen Revenue Department officials met with comptrollers of a dozen larger Missouri companies Wednesday. They traded information on how the withholding system would work and how the added deduction should be set up on business machines.

Constitution Bars Loans

Kennedy Takes Fresh Issue On Aid to Private Schools

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy says the Constitution bars federal loans to private secondary schools on any across-the-board basis. And he hopes advocates of such aid will desist lest the administration's education bill be killed.

Taking fresh issue with critics, the President sounded that appeal and expressed his views on the legal issues at a news conference Wednesday—even as word came from Congress about plans to press for loans to these schools.

Kennedy previously had asserted that he also believes outright grants to non-public secondary schools would be unconstitutional.

At the session with 350 newsmen, Kennedy dealt at great length with the administration's controversial $3.2 billion bill to provide federal grants to public schools, scholarships to college students and loans to colleges. It calls for neither grants nor loans to parochial and private schools.

But the conference questions and answers also ranged into the international field and touched on other domestic matters.

For example, Kennedy said he would like to see an easing of what he called Communist China's belligerent attitude and harsh attacks on the United States.

"But," he added, "we are not prepared to surrender in order to get a relaxation of that."

And Kennedy announced that next Monday he will make a major policy statement dealing with the problems of Latin-American nations.

He also said he soon will be sending a special message to Congress indicating "what I believe to be the relative defensive position of the United States and other countries, and what needs to be done to improve it."

The President made that statement when asked whether he had yet concluded, on the basis of Pentagon studies, whether the Soviet Union has a missile advantage over the United States.

Kennedy said cryptically that he had looked over an FBI report on Charles Meriwether before the Senate voted 67-18 Wednesday to confirm him as an Export-Import Bank director.

"I am confident that he will do a good job," the President said.

A reporter had noted that Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., had raised a question as to whether Meriwether had a police record. Meriwether has not commented on Morse's statements.

1,448 TB Tests Are Given At Smith-Cotton

A total of 1,448 Tuberculin tests were made at Smith-Cotton High School during the two day session there, Monday and Tuesday. Of this number, 1,280 were students.

Others were teachers and employees. Several students were absent and Mrs. Bettye Murrell, School Nurse, has announced an absentee make up session will be held for those who want the test, on a date to be announced.

The local doctors who participated in Smith-Cotton tests were: Dr. A. J. Campbell, Dr. Tom Hopkins, Dr. Karl Gonser, Dr. D. K. Kirby, and Dr. K. L. Holden. Also participating in the testing were: Dr. Fred Tash and Dr. Virgilio Nasarrete from the TB Sanitarium at Mount Vernon, Mo.

Space Ship Lands On Earth Signal

Other Biological Objects Reportedly Take Space Trip

MOSCOW (AP)—A five-ton space ship with a dog aboard was launched into orbit today and landed safely, the Soviet government announced.

The official news agency Tass said the space ship landed somewhere in the Soviet Union on a signal from the earth, duplicating a feat announced last August.

Aboard the space ship in a special cabin was a dog named Chernushka (brunette) "and other biological objects," Tass said. "The initial inspection of the landed vessel proved that the experimental animal feels well."

Chernushka thus joined the dogs Strelka (arrow) and Belka (squirrel) as pioneer space vehicle riders.

In their voyage last August, the Soviets said Strelka and Belka traveled about 435,000 miles in an orbit.

The Tass announcement did not say how far Chernushka traveled, but the maximum height of the space ship's orbit was given as 154.5 miles. The minimum height of the orbit was 113.4 miles.

A Tass announcement broadcast in Russian by Moscow radio said the aim of the new test "is the further adjustment of the design of the space ship and of the systems on board so as to insure the necessary conditions for the flight of man."

A later announcement by Tass in the English language made no mention of this, saying "the main object of this effort was a further improvement of space vehicle design and of life support equipment."

When recovering the two dogs last Aug. 19, the Soviets said the capsule was detached on signal and was landed safely, followed by the undamaged landing of the space vehicle. The latest announcement did not make clear whether this was the case today. It spoke only of the successful recovery of "the fourth Soviet satellite ship."

Inspection Shows Base Is Prepared

Col. George L. Newton Jr., 340th Bomb Wing Commander, announced today that outstanding results had been achieved during the operational readiness inspection which ended March 7. These operational readiness inspections are conducted at least once every 18 months by the Second Air Force Inspector General to insure that the wing is capable of carrying out its mission in the event of a national emergency, officials said.

In a personnel message to Col. Newton, Lt. General John P. McConnell, Second Air Force, stated, "I have observed with particular interest the outstanding results accomplished by the 340th Bomb Wing during the Operational Readiness Inspection that was just completed. The superior achievement of your aircrews, maintenance personnel and staff reflect the highest order of professional airmanship."

Brig. General Robert H. Strauss, Commander of the 17th Air Division, at Whiteman AFB said, that it was the smoothest operation that he had witnessed since he had been in the Strategic Air Command.

Special Meeting Of Council Called

Mayor Abe Silverman has called a special meeting of the City Council for Monday night, to enact an emergency ordinance declaring that it will not be necessary to hold a primary election in the Fourth Ward.

Silverman, in view of the fact that there is only one candidate for Councilman for each of the two major political parties in this Ward, explained that by not having a primary in this Ward the City will save about $400 in election expenses.

The meeting is called for 7:30 p.m., in the Council chambers.

Follow a Pattern

Kennedy News Conferences Are Far from Being Simple

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — On TV screens around the country President Kennedy's news conferences look quick and simple. They're quick. But they are not simple.

He's now had six meetings with the press, enough to show at least this much: He follows a deliberate pattern which he established himself; and his technique, much more subtle, is still developing.

This is the pattern: From the very beginning Kennedy, who won election by a squeak, has used his news conferences to get across an impression of himself as a man in motion.

Example: The series of announcements he makes at the start of each conference.

Wednesday there were eight, ranging from plans for a White House reception to orders he has given to relieve hardship among Indian and Eskimo children. All could have been announced by his press secretary, Pierre Salinger.

By doing this himself Kennedy stays in the public eye as a very busy President. He is, indeed, busy as his various programs and messages, testify.

The news conference announcements, even though many are of secondary importance, add to the total impression.

His technique: He handles himself easily, fluidly, and fluently. He's relaxed. He's relaxed because he did his homework, knows what he's talking about, took the trouble to inform himself before confronting questioners.

Two hallmarks of President Eisenhower's news conferences were vagueness and generalities. This was particularly true in his early White House days. Kennedy at most times is specific.

Eisenhower, because of his lifetime in the Army, didn't know government details well when he took office. Kennedy has an advantage here: Because of his 14 years in Congress, he knows government pretty much inside out. A good example of Kennedy's specific knowledge was in his statements Wednesday on federal aid to education. But his technique began to show a change Wednesday. The best example, again, was on federal aid to education.

While Eisenhower rambled, Kennedy usually has been direct and terse. Wednesday he was for the most part direct but less terse. He not only explained his thinking on federal aid at great length, but did it repeatedly.

It looked like a deliberate, planned effort to educate the public, through press and radio, on the problem as he sees it: That, while federal aid to public schools is needed, similar aid to parochial schools hits constitutional blocks.

This change in technique—long explanation which took up a lot of time — gave newsmen less chance to ask varied questions and cover more ground. The result, from a news standpoint, was pretty dull. That ought to give Kennedy something to chew on. He can defeat his purpose—educating the public on his viewpoint—if, by long explanations, he winds up diminishing public interest in what he has to say.

First Christian CWF Holds Regular Meet

The Christian Women's Fellowship of the First Christian Church met in general assembly Thursday in Fellowship Hall.

Group No. 3, Mrs. J. L. Hiltner, chairman, was in charge of the luncheon. The devotion was given by Mrs. Louis Harris, with Mrs. Frank Ellis and Mrs. Harold Vogel assisting. Mrs. W. L. Lewis sang "My Task" accompanied by Mrs. H. C. Foraker at the piano. Mrs. J. C. Saunders local CWF president presided at the business meeting.

The speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. Paul Darby, District CWF President, of Booneville. Mrs. Darby gave an interesting and informative talk on the progress and goals of the Christian Women's Fellowship in Missouri. Mrs. C. F. Scott presented Mrs. Darby a gift at the close of the meeting.

The April meeting will be a sacrificial luncheon with Mrs. Richard Spellman in charge.

LaMonte Residents Visit Out of State

By Mrs. C. A. DeHaven

LAMONTE—Mr. and Mrs. Raymond DeFrain spent a day with her sister, Mrs. Drew Cartzadner and Mr. Cartzadner in Paola, Kan.

Mrs. Hazel Noland has returned after a two month vacation in Fort Worth, Tex. visiting Mr. and Mrs. Snider Jacoby.

Mrs. Bertha Houchen has returned from a three week trip in California. She visited a sister, Mrs. Loma Cox, Barstow, Calif., and a sister, Mrs. H. J. Weese, and family and a brother, S. D. Burks and family, both of Laguna Beach, Calif.

Hung between the long storklike legs is a new two-in-one pod which carries both fuel and a nuclear bomb. An Air Force Hustler recently set several new world speed records, hitting over 1,200 m.p.h.

Test of De Gaulle Popularity Is Seen

PARIS (AP)—The government has scheduled a grass roots test of President de Gaulle's popularity for the first two Sundays of June, when half of the departmental (county) councils will be elected.

Although various local issues frequently figure in these contests, they reflect the electorate's state of mind.

Savannah River May Flow Green On St. Pat's Day

SAVANNAH, Ga. (AP)—Even the Savannah River will be wearing green on St. Patrick's Day if Tom Wooley's idea works.

Wooley, food and beverage manager of a Savannah hotel, proposes to dye the river green for Savannah's annual St. Patrick's Day parade March 17.

He said he will run a test today to determine how much dye would be needed and what it would cost. City officials cautiously agreed to help determine if the plan is feasible.

Wooley proposes to use a strong dye known as fluorescein, which is commonly used to test sewerage systems. A county health department spokesman said the substance is not toxic, is water soluble and would have no permanent effect on anything it touches.

Golden Agers Club Holds Luncheon Meet

The weekly meeting of the Golden Agers Club, sponsored by The Salvation Army, was held on Tuesday with 34 members present. Every week for the past several weeks, there has been at least one new member enrolled.

The Golden Agers Club is made up of senior citizens of the community of Sedalia. The only requirement needed to become a member is that the person be at least sixty years of age.

A time of fellowship is held by each one attending. There are games of checkers, dominoes, Chinese Checkers or just talking. Some of the ladies enjoy doing art work such as painting or embroidery work and so forth.

A lunch is served at noon followed by a devotional period led by either Captain Weber or Captain Jones.

Woman's Group Of Otterville Meets

Mrs. Glen Nelson was hostess to the Otterville Presbyterian Women's Organization at its February meeting.

The president, Mrs. Harry Loeffler, opened the meeting with prayer in unison. Routine business followed.

The devotion was given by Mrs. Glen Nelson. Mrs. Jesse Parsons, leader for the study, led a discussion on the "Hymn Book of Ages."

Refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be March 27 at the home of Mrs. B. J. Wilkening, with Miss Norma Schlobohm as leader.

Past Matron's Club Of Otterville Meets

The Versailles Past Matron's Club met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Jack Clark with Mrs. Walter Eppenauer, Mrs. Frank Pyle and Mrs. Paul Uptergrove acting hostesses.

The president, Mrs. Jack Clark, presided. The devotion was given by Mrs. Estel DeVinna. Miss Anna Marie Sebaom, a foreign exchange student, talked on customs and life in her country and answered all questions of the club members. This was a very interesting program.

As this was the club's annual Valentine party an exchange of gifts was held during the social hour. The dining table was decorated in red and white, set with red candles, crystal punch bowl, individual heart cakes and mints. Favors were small red satin pin cushions edged in white lace.

St. Louis Pair Killed As Car Burns In Crash

MINEOLA, Mo. (AP)—A St. Louis area man and woman were killed Wednesday when their car burned after being hit broadside by another auto on U.S. highway 40 near Mineola.

They were tentatively identified as Robert Bryant of St. Louis and Mrs. Delores Parker, 37, of East St. Louis, both Negroes.

Both bodies were burned badly. Two persons in the other car were reported in serious condition at a Fulton, Mo., hospital. They are John Idoux, 60, of Kansas City (6500 West 69th Street) and his daughter, Miss Betty Jean Idoux, 34, same address.

The highway patrol said the Bryant car apparently ran off the highway onto a muddy shoulder and skidded back onto the pavement into the path of the other auto.

Easter Party Planned By Flat Creek Club

The Flat Creek 4-H Club met Wednesday at the Anderson School for its regular meeting with 15 members present.

An Easter party was planned to be held at the Anderson School, April 1 from two until four in the afternoon. Children under nine are invited. The committee is Betty Welliver, Gloria Rouchka and Carol McPatrick.

State 4-H Club Week was discussed by the group. Also discussed was Junior Leader Camp.

A demonstration "How to Use Tri-Square" was given by Jim Wissman.

The next meeting will be April 5 at 7:30 p.m. at the Anderson School.

Anti-Red Mob Jeers A Russian Diplomat

QUITO, Ecuador (AP)—Anti-Communist demonstrators jeered Soviet Diplomat Vladimir I. Bazykin Wednesday when he left the presidential palace after a meeting with President Jose Velasco Ibarra. Bazykin, Soviet ambassador to Mexico, flew here to discuss commercial relations with Ecuador which reportedly is planning a commercial mission to Moscow.

Bunk-Stuffing Record Claimed By Virginia Tech

BLACKSBURG, Va. (AP)—Virginia Tech students were laying claim today to the national collegiate record for bottom-bunk stuffing.

Bottom-bunk stuffing, the newest collegiate fad, is getting as many pajama-clad students as possible into a bottom bunk of a double-deck bed.

Students at Tech's Campbell Hall waged their "contest" Wednesday morning.

Through diligent effort, grunting, groaning, and just plain ingenuity, 65 male students were packed into the bunk.

Then it collapsed. The students claimed the record anyway.

Comic Diving Is Interrupted By A Near Tragedy

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—A comic diving act was disrupted by a near-tragedy during a circus performance Wednesday night.

Three professional divers were injured, none critically, when a 39,000 gallon tank filled with 10 feet of water burst as one performer dove into it.

The other two, climbing to the 20-foot diving platform, fell to the arena floor. The crowd watched horror-stricken.

Injured were Gary Gaines, 38, of Trenton, N. J., who was diving; Athas Darigo, 32, Miami, Fla., and Hartley French, 31, North Miami Beach, Fla.

Gaines and French suffered chest and rib injuries. Darigo had a leg and arm injured.

Firemen pumped the water out of the Municipal Auditorium arena and the circus continued.

City Manager Dies In Illinois Town

BELLEVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Arthur J. Mulvihill, city manager of Mascoutah, Ill., died Wednesday in a Belleville hospital.

Mulvihill, 57, died of cancer. He became Mascoutah City Manager last August. He formerly was an officer of a foundry at Hannibal, Mo., and was former city manager of De Soto, Lebanon and Slater, Mo.

He is survived by his widow and two sons.

West German Army To Use 'Pure' Term

BONN, Germany — The West German army is going to continue calling some of its units "racially pure" despite the unpopularity Adolf Hitler gave the expression, Defense Minister Josef Strauss told Parliament Wednesday.

The army uses the expression to designate units that have the same weapons throughout.

Gerhart Jahn, a member of the Socialist opposition suggested the army change to "pure in type" to avoid confusion with the Nazi-era connotation. Strauss refused, saying the expression couldn't be bad in itself since animal breeders have continued to use it without provoking criticism.

X-15 Rocket Plane Speed Set Higher

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—Air Force Maj. Bob White learned Wednesday that his latest speed run in the record-setting X15 rocket ship was even faster than at first estimated.

Initial readings after Tuesday's flight showed he had exceeded 2,650 miles an hour. But a study of instrument data later fixed the figure at 2,905 m.p.h.

Either way, White had topped his previous world mark of 2,275—achieved in an X15 with a smaller power plant.

The new engine, which has a 57,000-pound thrust, is expected to carry man to the fringe of space later this year.

Ministerial Alliance Has Regular Meet

The Sedalia Ministerial Alliance met for its monthly breakfast and meeting at the Coffee Pot Cafe March 6. Chairman of the leadership training school, the Rev. Roger Fjeld, announced that this year's school would be held for three Tuesdays and three Thursdays, beginning April 11 and ending April 27, 7-9 p.m. each evening.

The place and instructors are not definite, but the six one-hour courses to be offered are: teaching young children, the beginnings of the church, understanding the religious denominations, music (for choir directors, organists, and choir members), one on missions, and one on general Bible content. These are for all interested persons of all church groups.

It was reported that the work on the recent religious census was virtually completed.

The Rev. Richard Spellman, chairman of special days committee, reported that devotionals are being held each week on Thursday in four industries during Lent. The Good Friday three-hour service will be sponsored by the Alliance at the Federated Church, March 31, noon to 3 p.m. Various ministers will lead and speak on the theme, "The Passion of Jesus."

Robert Heins, president of the Sedalia lawyers' association, indicated that inserts of church bulletins were available upon request from him (TA 6-3222) for "Law Day," May 1. These should be asked for by March 20. President Stribling indicated that bulletins or inserts for Cancer Sunday could also be obtained by calling Mrs. Donald Renner (TA 6-7141). This will be observed on April 23.

All individuals or organizations interested in obtaining copies of the book, "The Gospels—Life of Jesus" by Edward F. Cary, have been asked to contact Irwin Raut or Rev. Roy Stribling.

The next meeting of the Ministerial Alliance will be at the same place Monday, April 10, 8 a.m.

Ethel M. North Honored With Bridal Shower

Mrs. William North and Mrs. Jess Garrigus honored Miss Ethel Mae North with a miscellaneous bridal shower at the home of the honoree, 2603 South Ingram, Wednesday night.

The gift table was centered with a white paper bride doll. Games were played with prizes won by Mrs. Anna Angel and Mrs. Pribble. Prizes were then given to the honoree.

Following the games the honoree opened her many lovely and useful gifts.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses to the following guests, the honoree, Mr. and Mrs. William North, Mrs. Jess Garrigus, Mrs. Etta Clinger, Mrs. Pribble, Mrs. Mary Green, Mrs. Maude Younger, Mrs. Edith Martenson, Captain Doris Jones, Mrs. Hazel Esser and daughters, Linda and Velma, Mrs. Anna Angel, Miss Ella Stevens, Mrs. Mamie Ellis, Miss Loretta Vinson, Miss Daisy Cronan, Mrs. Judy Esser, Mrs. Harry Sowers, Mrs. Anna Bell Gosnell, Mrs. Helen Lutgen and daughter, Delilah.

Those sending gifts but unable to attend were, Mrs. Elizabeth North, Mrs. Marje Felton, Mrs. Edna Schell, Mrs. Maude Burlingame, Mrs. Nora Rosenhan, Mrs. Erdus Wheatly, Gayle Garrigus, Mrs. Louise Burlingame, Mary F. and Mary A. Roberts and Lorene Beeler.

Gerald Cecil Speaks To Willing Workers

The Whittier Willing Workers met for its March meeting Thursday at the Whittier School with 14 members and two visitors. Four new members, Ernest Craig, Dixie Holt, Eldred Schrader and Kenneth Schrader, Jr., were welcomed into the club.

Gerald Cecil gave a talk on the rules for safe riding and handling of bicycles. Pamphlets on rules of the road and hand signals were passed out. He also gave a demonstration on the parts of a bicycle and how to keep them in good condition.

The club is to record the radio program Saturday, March 18, at 1:30 p.m. at the radio station KDRO. All members are requested to be present.

The committee for National 4-H week put a window display for the club in at Deck's Appliance Store at 512 South Ohio.

The next meeting will be at Whittier School April 6. A talk and a film on bicycle safety will be given by the chief of police, Ralph Hamlin.

APPEARING IN PLAY—Miss Beverly Couhig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Couhig, 900 South Quincy, is appearing currently in the production, "All the King's Men," at the Jewish Community Center's Resident Theatre, 1600 Linwood Blvd., Kansas City.

The play, written by Robert Penn Warren, depicts the life story of the late Huey Long of the state of Louisiana. The play opened Saturday, March 4, and will run through Sunday, March 12, with the exception of Friday, March 10.

Miss Couhig is a graduate of Sacred Heart High School and a graduate of St. Mary's College, Xavier, Kan., receiving her degree in English and drama. She also played summer stock at Emporia State Teachers College of Emporia, Kan., and was a member of the Fine Art Theatre Group of Colorado Springs, Colo., participating in several productions there.

Green Ridge Garden Club Meets Friday

Mrs. George Titsworth assisted by Mrs. L. H. Wadleigh was hostess to the Green Ridge Garden Club Friday afternoon at her home northwest of town.

The hostesses served a dessert course at 1:30 to 19 members including one guest, Mrs. Earl Romig, near Sedalia. The refreshment course was suggestive of St. Patrick's Day. Favors were shamrocks.

The president, Mrs. Ethel Sims, presided and opened the meeting with the following poems, "How to be Miserable," read by Mrs. E. H. Boltz, and "Helpful Thoughts," read by Mrs. Mary Johnson.

Mrs. Lynn K. Wood presented an interesting program showing colored slides of "Wild Flowers," of Oregon, Colorado and Michigan.

Mrs. Gertrude Helman reported that the date for the spring flower show had been set for Wednesday, May 10, and would be held in the basement of the Green Ridge Presbyterian Church. The theme of the flower show is "Our Town," and Mrs. Helman read the arrangement schedule for the show. The members plan to distribute bulbs, plants and seeds as favors to the visitors that attend their show.

Mrs. Sims announced that there will be a Flower Arrangement Demonstration Wednesday, April 19, at the Wesley Methodist Church in Sedalia. She also announced the annual convention of the Conservation Federation to be held at Jefferson City, April 15-16.

Mrs. Edna Ryan and Mrs. Mary Johnson will be the April hostesses and Mrs. Wilson Harbit will present the program.

Pork in Your Menus

Pork gives a good return for the money. Lean pork is an important source of high quality protein and provides a considerable amount of iron and niacin. Pork is especially important for thiamine because it contains significant quantities and because there are fewer valuable food sources of this vitamin than of other known B-vitamins. Lack of thiamine can result in loss of appetite, nerve disorders and impairment of digestion. Pork liver, too, is very high in thiamine. Another point to remember is that the new calorie chart lists the calorie content of pork to be very similar to that of beef.

Cost of pork: Depends on the total supply available, the shopper demands, and the desirability of the cut. The food dollar may be stretched by selecting less expensive cuts. Some pork cuts are better sources of lean than other cuts. Less expensive cuts such as the Boston butt (which appears on the market as pork shoulder or blade chops and picnics) are more economical sources of lean meat than are loin roasts, ham or loin chops. Bacon is a costly source of lean meat, but it is usually purchased for its flavor, as well as the lean.

Pork for frying: If pork is a favorite with your family now is a good time to watch for the lowest prices on your favorite cuts and put a few extras into the freezer. Fresh pork, if wrapped and stored under good conditions, keeps good quality three to six months. One thing to remember—salt speeds the development of rancidity in cured or salted pork. For this reason, salted products cannot be stored in the freezer as long as fresh pork.

Cooking Pork Is Easy: Low temperature produces the most desirable product—juicy, flavorful, fine textured meat with the best retention of nutrients.

Low temperature also means less shrinkage and consequently more servings per pound.

Always cook fresh pork to the well done stage—a meat thermometer is the most reliable method for testing whether meat is done when thick cuts are roasted. When thoroughly cooked, pork has changed in color from pink to grayish white.

There are five methods used in cooking pork—roasting, broiling, panbroiling, braising and cooking in water. Both fresh and smoked pork are roasted. Only smoked pork cuts are broiled and panbroiled. Both fresh and smoked pork may be braised and cooked in water. Pork is not used in making stews.

Food News

Does Milk Have An Important Place in Your Food Budget? Milk does more for the human body than any other food and at less expense. Milk is one of nature's most perfect foods, containing high quality protein, vitamins, fat and sugar—in fact, some of just about everything known to be needed for good health. If making pay-days is hard for you, economize by keeping plenty of milk in your refrigerator. Just feel fortunate that we in this country can purchase all the milk we need and want.

Celery Low in Cost is Dieter's Delight—A pound of celery has only 52 calories—so good for nibbling without adding poundage. One bunch generally weighs 1½ to 2 pounds.

If You Know Your Bones, you can tell tender cuts of meats from less tender ones. The five basic bone types are: T-bone, rib, wedge, round and blade. Tender cuts include those which have the rib, wedge and T-bone. They may also include the round bone. T-bone cuts, which come from the loin, include veal, pork and lamb chops and beef porterhouse and T-bone steaks. Rib bone cuts include rib steaks or chops. Wedge bone cuts are sirloin steaks. Round bone cuts include round steak, ham center slice and lamb leg steak. These hindquarter cuts should not be confused with the forequarter arm steaks. Tender cuts of meat may be broiled or steaks to be broiled are top roasts. The only beef round grades—USDA Prime or Choice. Less tender cuts of meat contain the blade bone and are most satisfactory when braised or stewed.

Did You Know The nutrients in food are not labeled as such in the markets? You can't go to the protein department, the calcium shelf or the Vitamin C section. You must learn to know which foods contain these important items.

Clothing That Will Satisfy the Child

Your child should enjoy his clothing. There may be times when satisfaction of the child is more important than all the rules we can supply for selecting his clothing.

Studies show that newness and color are the most important features of clothing to a young child. These studies also point out a number of other preferences of children. It is believed that these all influence emotional adjustment and contribute to a happy childhood to such a degree that they are worthy of careful consideration when you select your child's clothing.

All young children like new clothes. They want to wear them at once. Frequently they beg to wear new shoes or a shirt from the store. They even like hand-me-downs that are new to them. Changing buttons, adding some trim or making other changes will add pleasure to wearing them. On the other hand children are never too happy about having some new clothes. The pleasure in wearing new clothes is greatly enhanced when they are recognized as new by others and admired.

Consider making new purchases at a time so your child will have something new more often, and consequently be very happy. This is also practical and economical because needs change so rapidly. The child's wardrobe is kept small but active. Outgrown but still wearable garments are held to a minimum.

The color of a garment is so important to young children that they frequently refer to it by its color rather than its style or type.

Children often develop definite color preferences. They may ignore the becomingness or the appropriateness to the occasion if permitted to make their own free choice in colors. Even worse, they are likely to put together their favorite colors whether or not they harmonize.

On the other hand you can capitalize on this interest in color as an opportunity for training your child in color selection. Skill in using color opens up a world of enjoyment and there is no better time to train both boys and girls in its use than when they are very young.

Consider letting your child select socks or mittens that blend with the rest of his outfit. Let your little girl make a final choice from two or three dresses of appropriate colors. For example, "Shall we buy the blue dress or the pink dress?" Avoid giving your child an opportunity to give a negative answer or to make a choice that would not be satisfactory. Examples of choices to avoid are, "Do you want a blue dress?" or "What color do you want?" Consider offering choices which are of a positive nature only.

4-H's Give Program At Optimist Meet

Janice Ratje, 16, member of Striped College 4-H Club, and Barry Ellis, 17, member of the Longwood 4-H Club, presented the program at the Breakfast Optimist Club Wednesday morning at the Pacific Cafe in observance of 4-H Week, which is March 5 through 11. They were introduced by Owen Fox, associate county agent, who is in charge of the Pettis County 4-H program.

Fox stated there are 34 4-H clubs, four of which are in Sedalia. He explained that 4-H was originally for farm boys and girls but with the population moving to the cities it is now an urban program as well as rural with clubs all over larger cities like New York, Chicago, Denver, Indianapolis and many others.

Among the many projects offered to 4-H boys in town are woodwork, rope work, automotive, photography, rabbits, dogs, horses and many other things. For girls, Fox continued, there are clothing, food, home management and home grounds. There are other projects for girls and some for both boys and girls.

Janice Ratje was the first speaker. She has been very active in 4-H for the past five years and is a junior leader. She explained the 4-H clover, emblem of the organization, saying it stood for health, head, hands and heart.

Janice chose to talk on the subject of clothing, telling the steps in each year's clothing project advancing from the making of a wrist pin cushion to a skirt and blouse the first year, and on and on each year until in the last year they make such things as wool suits or coats.

She told the importance of pressing aids for wool, of the money saved in making their own clothes, and things they must take into consideration such as design and color, fabric coordination, workmanship, general appearance, how the garments must pass requirements and then go to the State Fair. The girls must model their dresses in front of a judge so that they may see how the garments look on.

Barry Ellis, who is in his ninth year, is president of the Pettis County Leaders Council. He won a trip to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago which is one of the highest honors in 4-H.

Barry explained that a member must specialize in one project and his was Farm Fire Safety. Among the things he did to win the right to attend the National Congress was to check 35 farm homes for fire safety and then go back to see that these things had been taken care of.

The winners at the National Congress receive scholarships, he said. After attending once a 4-H member cannot go again except in citizenship, leadership and achievement.

Barry showed pictures taken at the National Congress, and among the pictures was one of foreign guests which he feels is something that makes good feeling between Americans and those of other lands. The National Congress, he said, was the highlight of his 4-H career, where you see so many people working together instead of in competition.

The meeting was presided over by Al Allgaier with invocation by the Rev. Roland Cooper. Gerald Cecil was program chairman and also led the singing with Miss Lillian Fox at the piano.

Windsor WSCS Holds Meeting at Church

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Windsor Methodist Church held the March meeting in the church parlor.

Meeting opened with prayer by Mrs. Keith Frost, president, who conducted the business session. Mrs. Eldred Hughes, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Maude Hensley, who gave the devotional and Mrs. R. K. Palmer, leader of the lesson, "Giving Thanks in Lent." Others assisting were Mrs. L. T. Hoback, Mrs. W. C. Boney and Mrs. John Carter. Program closed with prayer by the leader.

A social hour was enjoyed in Wesley Hall with Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Edgar Bumpas as hostesses serving refreshments.

Sedalia Students Rate High in Music

A group of Sedalia grade school children participated in the Music Festival at Marshall on March 3.

Those receiving A ratings were Chucky Huddleston, Jan Morris, Steve Morris, Linda Wright, Karen Hicks, Nancy Downs, Linda Pearson, Ann Sillers, Dixie Kemp, and Linda LaVelle. Jan Hoffman received an A plus rating.

Receiving B ratings were: Cynthia Hopkins, Patricia Cummings, Lucy Lockett and Jill Hopkins.

All are piano pupils of Mrs. Jewell H. Thomas and are members of the Mozart Music Club.

Commonwealth Heads Convention Underway

LONDON (AP) — Prime Ministers of the British Commonwealth convened today for a conference overshadowed by racial problems and the future association of South Africa with the family nations.

Despite the widespread opposition to South Africa racial segregation policies, advance word was that most of the nonwhite nations had decided not to press for South Africa's expulsion from the Commonwealth.

California Soldier At a Kentucky Post

Army Specialist Four Thomas F. Kirchoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse H. Kirchoff, Route 4, California, recently was assigned to the 101st Airborne Division at Ft. Campbell, Ky.

The 101st is a major Strategic Army Corps (STRAC) unit which constantly maintains an immediate readiness force for airborne deployment to any area in the world.

Kirchoff, a cook in Service Battery of the division's 11th Artillery at the fort, entered the Army in 1948.

The 29-year-old soldier attended California High School.

Newspaper a Handy Item Against Crooks

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — It's a moot question whether the pen is mightier than the sword, but a newspaper comes in handy at times.

James Prenatt, 25, told police a car pulled beside him early Tuesday, and one of the two men inside ordered him to hand over his billfold at gunpoint.

Prenatt said he hurried a newspaper at the car and it sped away.

Syracuse PTA Holds Meeting Thursday

The Syracuse PTA met in regular session Thursday evening with the president, Mrs. Otto Carver, presiding.

Superintendent Wayne Huddleston, Roscoe Gibson and Webster Thomas of the Tipton School, spoke and also answered questions on the need of an increase in the school levy.

The third and fourth grades of which Miss Dora Eichholz is teacher, entertained with a number of songs, accompanied by Mrs. Stanley Palmer, music instructor. Refreshments were served.

The Business World

Everyone Has a Favorite Culprit for Unemployment

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — It seems everyone has his own favorite whipping boy as the culprit in unemployment's climb to nearly seven per cent of the total labor force.

Here are some of the reasons given for all or part of the rise in unemployment which finds at least 5.7 million Americans looking for work, the most in 20 years:

1. The over-all slump in business activity, especially in manufacturing and raw materials production.

2. The weather.

3. The growing emphasis on highly skilled workmen along with those in the service trades—at the expense of the unskilled, especially in manufacturing.

4. Competition of U.S. industry with lower priced foreign production.

Probably all play a part. And to a degree each reacts on the other to increase its toll.

The toll of the business slump is easy to spot. Layoffs are reported almost every week, as companies strive to tailor output to sales.

The causes given include consumer caution in buying finished goods, businessmen's reluctance to order materials until their sales pick up, over capacity in production facilities which causes the oldest and least efficient plants to be shut down, cutbacks in expansion plans because of the current overcapacity, and mechanization which cuts the demand for labor, especially the unskilled.

The weather can always be blamed for current ills. At this time of year it normally slows employment for outdoor jobs, such as farming and construction. It often snarls transportation and keeps shoppers at home. It dulls consumer interest in many types of goods and activities and thus cripples retail trade or sales of goods used out of doors. Just ask your auto dealer about this.

Foreign competition is blamed by many American businessmen with cutting into their sales both here and abroad. Labor unions join them in complaining that this has cost many workers here their jobs.

But recessions in time give way to business advances. The weather changes for the better. Congress could, if it wishes, move to curb some of the foreign competition.

This still leaves the worrisome question: How much of the current unemployment is chronic?

And this goes back to the plight of the unskilled, or of those trained in skills for which the demand has dwindled, or of the very young who haven't had a chance yet to be trained at all.

Those are the ones worst hit by the current rise in unemployment. They are scattered through all of the industries suffering now, whether for temporary or long-term reasons.

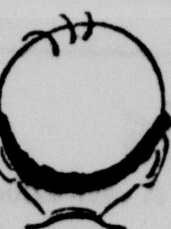

Mechanization has taken a toll in some. The long-term turn in consumer spending toward services at the expense of goods has doubtless taken as a big one. The rise in demand for new skills and highly special ones leaves many in the working force high and dry.

Curing one cause of unemployment, therefore, won't get rid of the problem by any means.

Senate Finally Confirms Meriwether's Nomination

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has confirmed the nomination of Charles M. Meriwether as director of the Export-Import Bank — an appointment that stirred more bitter criticism than any other President Kennedy has made.

The roll call vote of approval Wednesday was 67-18. Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., continued the drumfire of opposition up to the last minute, calling Meriwether a racist anti-Semite and saying Kennedy had made a "horrendous mistake" in appointing him. Kennedy, however, said later

"I am confident that he will do a good job."

Meriwether said in a statement: "This expression of confidence in my ability is reassuring and I accept with great humility the privilege of serving on the board."

Forty-eight Democrats and 19 Republicans voted for Meriwether; 10 Republicans and 8 Democrats were against him.

Meriwether is an Alabama segregationist and political ally of Alabama Gov. John Patterson, one of the first governors to support Kennedy for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Meriwether told the Senate Banking Committee he never was a member of the Ku Klux Klan, but had accepted support from all sources when he managed Patterson's 1958 campaign for governor. He denied he was anti-Negro, anti-Semitic or anti-Catholic.

Morse said Kennedy "owes an apology to every Jew in America, to every Negro in America, for this appointment."

"This nomination will rise to plague the President of the United States," he added. "The President has no right to make such an appointment."

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N. Y., also opposed, said, "This kind of thing just cannot go on."

Morse also said "I think I have been reliably informed" that Meriwether has a police record, and "it is charged that he at one time was an alcoholic, although his friends now claim that he is reformed."

Meriwether has not replied to these charges. Morse declared that if Kennedy had known Meriwether's record he "wouldn't have made the nomination in the first place."

Asked about the appointment later at Wednesday's news conference, Kennedy said: "I informed the conference and the Senate that I looked over Mr. Meriwether's FBI record (routine for all top appointments) before I sent it (the nomination) to the Senate. Mr. Meriwether is now a member of the Export-Import Bank, confirmed by the Senate, by a rather large figure, and I am confident that he will do a good job."

In his statement, Meriwether said: "As a director of the Export-Import Bank, I will always exert my best effort on behalf of my country and will perform my new duties with interest, vigor and determination."

Several members of the Clothing I, II and IV groups of the Happy Workers 4-H Club of Pilot Grove made a shopping trip to Sedalia Saturday morning in order to purchase material for their sewing projects.

Those making the trip were, Kay Martin, Sara Roth, Linda Stoecklein, Patty Schlottzauer, Jeanette Brownfield, Anick Greer and Billye Rackley.

The group was accompanied by their 4-H clothing leader, Mrs. Earl L. Hayes and Mr. Hayes.

Windsor CWF Holds March Luncheon Meet

The Christian Women's Fellowship held their March meeting at a one o'clock luncheon in the dining room of the Windsor Christian Church. Hostesses were Mrs. Devere Bilderback, Mrs. Myrtle Langston and Mrs. George Windsor.

The meeting was opened with the CWF prayer. Mrs. Alveus T. Bradley, president, presided with 27 members present.

Announcements were made of the following: April 11, the county convention of the CWF will be held at the Christian Church in Windsor. Projects are to be needlework or other articles, for the Children's Fair, at the St. Louis Children's Home, to be completed by March 31; and nylon hose for Japan.

The Youth District Meeting will be Sunday evening, April 16, at the Christian Church in Windsor.

"How Firm a Foundation," was the theme of the program given by Mrs. Ralph Allen, the basic thought being, "Foundations are Invisible," but upon this we may build our lives happily and securely.

Mrs. Frank Roberts gave the devotionals based upon the scripture, Hebrews 11:1-10. The central thought was, "Faith is contagious, success depends upon that faith, to be open to the stream of God's power."

The group sang, "Standing on the Promises," with Mrs. Frank Nichols accompanist.

Sweet Springs School Places In Contest

Sweet Springs R-7 Schools did unusually well in the district Music Festival held in Marshall Friday. The total of first ratings, including those earned by grade school pupils, was eight.

One ratings were awarded to John Lockard, Cindy Farmer and Nancy Payne for their vocal solos. Second ratings, still above average, were received by Linda Weaver on her vocal solo; Larry Green, saxophone solo; cornet quartet; and the triple trio, and larger girls' glee club. Margie Nichols was awarded a II plus on her piano solo.

In the grade school division, Mike Tolson and Diane Koester received A's on their piano solos; Mary Knipmeyer an A on her clarinet solo; clarinet quartet, A; and Roger Meyer, A on a saxophone solo. Susie Pragman was awarded a B plus on her clarinet solo, and B's were received by David Meyer and Diane Koester on instrumental solos.

The larger high school groups received lesser ratings. The mixed chorus a III, and the band received a IV, due to a shortage of music for the judges' use.

Otterville WMS Holds Mission Study Monday

The Woman's Missionary Society and Irene Brannum Circle of the First Baptist Church of Otterville conducted a mission study class at the church Monday evening.

The meeting opened with song followed by the devotionals by Mrs. Elmer Clawson, president of WMS. Mrs. R. A. Show gave a prayer.

Following the contributive supper in the church dining hall, the group returned to the church auditorium to resume the study of the book, "The Dreamer Cometh" taught by Rev. Vonsyoc, Miss Mary Homan, Mrs. Richard Baker, Mrs. Asa Bishop and Rev. Elmer Clawson.

Mrs. W. L. Burford taught the juniors who studied the book "The Sawgrass Missionary."

There were 23 adults and four juniors present.

Executives Are Freed From Prison

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Four more electrical firm executives, including three from the General Electric Co., were freed from prison early today for exemplary behavior after serving 25 days of 30-day terms for price fixing and bid rigging.

They were William S. Ginn, 45, of Schenectady, N. Y., GE vice president who earns $135,000 a year; Lewis J. Burger, 48, general manager of GE's switchgear and control division, Fort Wayne, Ind.; George E. Burens, 56, a GE vice president from Schenectady and Edwin R. Jung, 58, vice president of the Clark Controller Co. of Cleveland.

The executives left the Montgomery County prison a few minutes after midnight in two cars. They declined comment but did agree to pose briefly for photographers.

The men were released on orders signed by Gilbert W. Ludwig, a clerk in the United States District Court of Philadelphia. He acted on authorization conveyed in a telephone conversation by Chief Judge J. Cullen Ganev who is vacationing in Florida.

Actually, the executives served only 24 days and a few minutes. But a prison spokesman explained that for all practical purposes serving a minute of a day can be considered serving a full day.

With the release of the four, only one more of the seven executives jailed by Ganev remained in prison. He is John M. Cook, 54, vice president of Cutler-Hammer Inc. of Milwaukee, who will be released Friday. He, too, will get five days cut off his 30-day term for exemplary behavior. He started serving his sentence after the other men.

On Tuesday, Charles I. Maunel 60, of Drexel Hill, Pa., and John H. Chiles, 57, of Sharon, Pa., both Westinghouse Electric Corp. executives, were released from the prison after serving 26 days of their 30-day terms.

In addition to jailing the seven, Ganev fined 29 of the nation's biggest electrical firms and 44 of their executives a total of $1,924,500.

Ernie Kovacs Scores Hit On TV Show

NEW YORK (AP) — If there was ever any argument that Ernie Kovacs belongs among the imaginative comic talents in the entertainment world, it was settled Wednesday night.

From the opening title lines to the closing credits, "Private Eye Private Eye" was a classic lampoon.

Take the first scene of the CBS U. S. Steel Hour show. It began in a thoroughly familiar setting—one that has been seen in many, many private eye shows—a deserted warehouse. But there similarity ended.

Kovacs was the determined sleuth, finally face to face with gangland's Mr. Big (Hans Conried). They are squared off in a showdown. Guns blaze and suddenly Pat Carroll enters. She brings hot soup for her private eye hubby and begins a running complaint. Every husband has heard it—about the kids, about school, about this and that. And all the while, determined artillery fire between the forces of good Kovacs became Nick Carter, "un-at the end when Mr. Big's woman, Edie Adams, comes in and starts complaining, in the same vein and tone as Pat Carroll.

Others have tried such satire but not with such uniform good humor and excellent results. And there were no sacred cows Wednesday night. The sponsor, the Girl Friday, the pretentious background music, the great fictional sleuths were all fair game.

In the takeoff on background music, Kovacs said that the music was the real star of such shows. To illustrate, all the musical clichés in history were brought out. A sinister hand dialed a telephone and each turn was accompanied by a barrroomp.

Edie Adams, who has a very engaging voice, used it like a sump pump in total discord. She sang on and on and on as her hero vainly tried to get information from a woman threatened with murder.

An unintentional bit of humor followed this great sketch. The commercial came on and it had all the stuff that Kovacs had just been kidding—upbeat jazz background as a car traveled over a rough road, lyrical passages when the scene turned to a bucolic fishing pond.

The last skit was as much a gem as the first. Turning to the ham theatrics of the silent film, Kovacs became Nick Carter, "unsurpassed master of disguise." In it, Kovacs was a doctor, butler, Santa Claus, sheep dog and wall fixture in the course of foiling the ruthless and evil jewel thief.

The comic talents of the others—of Edie Adams, Pat Carroll and Hans Conried—showed that Kovacs was in good company.

Weatherford Has Condition For Accepting Post

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Robert P. Weatherford Jr., City Manager Harry Fleming's choice to succeed him, said Wednesday he would accept the job, on one condition.

Weatherford said he would want the City Council's commitment giving him full administrative freedom in following the city charter to the letter.

Fleming, who has been ailing, said he does not intend resuming his duties following a 60-day leave of absence, up Sunday.

Weatherford, former mayor of Independence, Mo., and member of the City Managers Association since 1952, is executive director of a Phoenix, Ariz., civic industrial corporation.

"There is a great challenge here, if the City Council wants a real city manager," Weatherford said.

Kansas City hasn't had a professional city manager since the resignation of L. P. Cookingham.

Cookingham resigned under pressure from the Democratic coalition which won control of City Hall in the spring of 1959.

Both Sides Will Watch Set For Answer at Trial

KANSAS CITY (AP)—That won't be a social gathering in front of Mrs. Joseph J. Krug's television set today.

The watchers will be looking for evidence.

Judge Lewis Clymer of the municipal court ordered the research when the trial of Howard Edison Millar, a TV repairman, bogged down Wednesday in a lot of gobbledegook about grids, oscillators, line voltage and gas leaks.

Millar replaced nine tubes in Mrs. Krug's set at a cost of $20. The prosecution charges the tubes did not need replacement. The defense contends they did.

Both sides will watch the screen today while two disinterested television experts work the old and new tubes around, then report to Judge Clymer.

Covered Dish Dinner Served

Sacred Heart Mothers Club Observes 16th Anniversary

The 16th anniversary of the Sacred Heart School Mothers Club was observed Sunday, with a covered dish dinner in the school cafeteria for the mothers and fathers. More than a hundred members attended.

John C. McCloskey, attorney, was the speaker of the evening and was introduced by James Askren, toastmaster.

Taking for his subject: "The Law Regarding Sixteen Year Old Drivers."

In some fields the laws are so many and complicated that even lawyers are hard put to know them, McCloskey said, but the law regarding 16-year old auto drivers is specific and clear.

Parents are running risks, he pointed out, when the 16-year old drives the car, particularly in regard to auto insurance coverage, in not being concerned that this law be observed strictly.

This law, McCloskey went on to explain, is that the 16-year old seeking a license to drive must go to the courthouse and take the written drivers' test and the eye test. If they pass then the youngster is given a 60 day temporary permit to drive a car accompanied by a licensed adult driver. At the end of the 60 day period the 16-year old applicant can pass a drivers' test and become a licensed driver; or, if the test is failed, he or she may apply for another 60 day temporary permit to drive accompanied by a licensed adult.

McCloskey stated that parents should be concerned about their insurance coverage which is threatened when a young licensed driver allows other unlicensed 16-year old companion to drive the family car; and the risk of teenagers being involved in irreparable auto fatalities are great according to the latest statistics compiled by the National Safety Council.

The speaker quoted statistics which show that in 1960 the group age for the ten years between 15 and 24 suffered almost as many fatalities from accidents as the group for the 20 year period from ages 24 to 44.

During 1960 auto fatalities are as follows: Ages 0-4, 1900; 5-14, 2,800; 15-24, 9,000; 25-44, 10,200; 45-64, 8,300 and above 65, 5,900. The total cost of auto accidents in the United States in 1960 is estimated at almost six and a half billion dollars, McCloskey said.

In a lighter vein McCloskey said that the highways are not the only scene of accidents, the home, according to statistics is, also, a very dangerous place. For the 38,200 auto fatalities in 1960 the statistics show 27,500 home fatalities. As an answer to the dilemma of where to go when the highways and the home were so dangerous the speaker said his wife had suggested the answer might be outer space. The skyway travel is five times safer than highway travel.

The tables were decorated in the St. Patrick's Day theme. At the speaker's table were the Rev. F. C. Laudick, the Rev. N. Adelman and the Rev. J. Hanssen all of the Sacred Heart Church; Mr. and Mrs. McCloskey, Mr. and Mrs. Askren, and some of the officers of the Mothers Club, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Belker, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stohr and Dr. and Mrs. K. B. Gonser.

At a special table were place-cards and corsages for the past presidents of the Mothers Club present, with whom were seated their husbands. At this table were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rouchka, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ash, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weimholt, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rabourn, now of Kansas City, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Trotter. Also, at this table were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Paxton and Miss Mary Helen Mayer.

The Sacred Heart High School senior girls sextette sang three numbers they had sung at the Marshall Music Festival the day before, and were accompanied by Mrs. Earl Paxton. The committee in charge of the dining room and the decorations was under Mrs. Charles Pearson while the kitchen committee was under Mrs. George Freese.

Prosecutor Says Politics Linked With Underworld

KANSAS CITY (AP)—"There isn't any question," County Prosecutor William A. Collett said Wednesday, "that there is a tie between some underworld figures and some political figures" in Kansas City.

Commenting on a report that the Justice Department in Washington was investigating the possibility of such a link, Collett added:

"I pointed it out time and time again last year. I probably made 100 speeches in which I referred to the same tie. The picture has not changed at all.

"We are delighted that the federal government is conducting an intensive investigation into the local criminal situation. Once the federal officers get into a matter, they have almost unlimited manpower with which to conduct an investigation.

"The federal people will undoubtedly learn much about the local scene that even local grand juries have not been able to learn in the past."

The prosecutor said he assumes federal investigators will pass along to him any evidence of state law violations for prosecution.

The Kansas City Star said Tuesday a federal grand jury may be impaneled to survey the underworld activities.

Fulton Woman Finds Money Cache in Yard

FULTON, Mo. (AP)—Mrs. B. G. Tutt's backyard garden is a money-maker.

While cleaning it out for spring planting she found a quarter, put the coin in her pocket and went about her business.

Then she spotted another 25-cent piece, another and still another. Mrs. Tutt called police.

The total yield: $50.25 in quarters and two old socks, one of them with a hole in the toe.

Police are holding the 201 coins for investigation. If the reason for them being there cannot be determined Mrs. Tutt will get the money.

Available Money Awarded

Soap Box Derby Hopefuls Receive Necessary Funds

Seventeen Soap Box Derby enthusiasts — 16 from Sedalia and one from Route 2, Hughesville — have received their funds to build their derby racers.

Awarding of all available sponsorship funds was made last night at a special meeting by the Junior Chamber of Commerce derby officials for boys who were among the first to register with the Jaycees—sponsoring organization for the derby.

Receiving sponsorship funds to date were: Ronnie Hodges, 1203 West 5th; Barry Hamlin, 1010 Crescent Drive; Billy Gardner, 2211 West 5th; Johnny Studer, 224 Driftwood; Max Cassing, 1221 South Kentucky; Jack Herndon, 1503 East 15th; Clint Dixon, 2407 Albert Lee; Bobby Pierce, 419 East 14th; Danny McCurdy, Hughesville; Mike Hawkins, 1609 West 9th; Frank McGinnis, 1615 Wagner Drive; Mike Wingate, 2018 West 14th; Don Baumgardner, 1817 West 11th; David Morris, 1702 Liberty Park Blvd.; and Larry Kehl, 1905 Fairview Court; Skippy Woodward, 1612 South Wagner.

Two sponsors have not named their entries but have chosen to sponsor a boy of their own choice.

Derby Director, William D. Hill, said official Soap Box Derby wheels and axles have been ordered for the boys who have received their racer body construction funds, and that assignments of other sponsorships will be made as soon as funds are available from sponsors.

Checks turned in so far have come from: Midwest Auto, The Democrat-Capital, Homakers, A Gardner, C. W. Flower Co., Berry's Hatchery, Gillespie's, Flint and Glass Workers Union, Connor-Wagoner, Lions Club, Tullis-Hall, Elks Club, Pepsi Cola, Krogers, Third National Bank, Burkholders, the Whiteman AFB NCO Alumni Association and Superette Markets.

More than 30 individuals, firms and organizations have pledged to sponsor an entry and Derby officials plan calls this week on parties concerned, states Ed Snively, chairman of the Sponsorship committee.

When these checks are all received the Jaycees will have met the minimum requirements for a sanctioned race, Snively said. The minimum is $50.

A site has been tentatively selected at the State Fairgrounds just north of the Hog Pavilion. The asphalt strip is about 800 feet in length and will require a nominal starting ramp, according to Hill.

Liston Ready For Patterson Or Johansson

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Sonny Liston, the No. 1 ranked heavyweight contender, said today he is willing to fight either Floyd Patterson or Ingemar Johansson for nothing as long as the title is at stake.

"From the way Cus D'Amato (Patterson's manager) talks, I guess I'll never get Patterson," said the 27-year-old Philadelphia heavyweight after he had knocked out Howard King of Reno in 53 seconds of the third round Wednesday night at the Miami Beach Auditorium.

"Johansson, I don't know about him," Liston said. "When he didn't have the title he would fight me. When he won it he wouldn't fight me. I don't know how he would feel if he wins this time."

Liston, winner of 32 of 33 pro fights and 25 in a row, predicted that Patterson would knock out Johansson inside of five rounds when they meet Monday night for the third time.

Liston, about 100 pounds over his normal weight at 219½ pounds, dropped the 204-pound King for a count of nine in the second. He floored him for the 10-count in the third with a right to the head. It was Liston's first fight in six months.

LODGE NOTICES

Sedalia Chapter No. 279 O. E. S. will meet in stated meeting Friday, March 10 at 7:30 p. m. Recognition of January, February and March birthdays. Social session. Visiting members welcome.

Edna Lee Handley, W. M. Florence Stauble, Sec'y.

site has been pledged by State Fair Secretary W. H. Ritzenthaler, according to Hill.

The big event is still scheduled for Sunday, July 23, however, plans for the derby parade may be altered, parade marshal, Rick Fullerton, said. The parade may be held on Saturday in downtown Sedalia, rather than on Sunday, as originally planned, near the race track which officials have labeled as "Derby Downs."

The director said he could see where the first annual event was headed for success and estimates the race fill attract upwards to 20,000 spectators.

Ingo, Floyd Believe In A Left Jab

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Ingemar Johansson has his "hammer of Thor" right and Floyd Patterson has his "automatic hook," but both fighters believe a fundamental punch—the left jab—will be the key to victory Monday night.

The big Swedish ex-champion has ended his sparring practice with his trusty right and his not so reliable left. The next time he tries to unload either hand on a man it will be against Patterson, the heavyweight champion, at Miami Beach's Convention Hall Monday night in their third title fight.

Per custom, Ingo finished his boxing preparations early. He closed with a six round workout Wednesday against three sparmates at Palm Beach. He will rest mostly until Monday to permit "strength to flow into my body and arms." It worked the first time when he dethroned Patterson in three rounds. In the return bout it wasn't effective as Floyd blitzed him in the fifth round with a thunderous left hook.

Patterson worked three rounds, looking impressive in the only round in which he tried, Wednesday. Today he was to end his sparring with another three round drill. Ingo appeared sharp in his final six rounds.

Both have stated that the advantage will go to the one who mounts the attack first. And both said the left jab will be a vital factor.

"My style is adjustable," said Patterson today. "I'm trying to improve and develop every punch. I'm not concerned with my left hook. The hook is automatic with me like the right is for Ingemar. It acts on its own."

Johansson has displayed a stiff left jab in his workouts.

"I must use it more," said Ingo. "With it I was able to take charge in the first fight. In the second fight, Patterson used it to push me around. He had the offensive. It was a mistake for me. I didn't use my left enough. I will come to him. I will not wait."

Jackie Cupit Making Bid In Masters

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Jackie Cupit, a young Texan making only his fifth start as a pro in the $20,000 Pensacola Open golf tournament today, is making a strong bid for an invitation to the Masters tournament.

The former University of Houston golf star from Longview, Tex., is in third place in point totals in a race for two special bids to the Masters, to be held at Augusta, Ga., April 6-9.

Cupit has played in only four of the nine PGA tournaments this year. Yet, with 67 points, he ranks close behind Gardner Dickinson, with 71½, and Bill Collins, with 71, in the race for the two invitations.

Many of the top pros will be invited to the Masters without having to worry about the point totals. They will be selected on the basis of other performances. But for those left out, the race is keen for the two bids.

Cupit, only 23, has finished among the top 10 in his four meets. With the Pensacola Open and two later tournaments counting in the competition for the two Masters bids, he has a good chance of grabbing one of them.

Others in the race include Mason Rudolph with 63½ points; Davey Hill, 61, and Al Geiberger, 49.

Big money winner Arnold Palmer was tagged as the favorite to hold his title in the 72-hole meet here. In practice rounds the past two days he shot an eight under par 64 and a 69.

Another strong contender was Doug Sanders, winner of the greater New Orleans meet Sunday.

In other derby news, Hill said he had learned that official racing "crash helmets" required for each racer driver, would be furnished free of charge by the Chevrolet Division of General Motors, national sponsors of the event. T-shirts, also required for each driver, are being ordered this week, according to Jack Allaga, special projects chairman for the derby.

Winner in the local event will carry the Sedalia banner to Akron, Ohio, Aug. 20, for the international race and he'll also get a "crack" at the $15,000 in prizes being offered.

Segregation In Big League Flares Anew

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — The question of segregation among major league baseball players in Florida, apparently forgotten in the early days of spring training, flared anew Wednesday when Bill White of the St. Louis Cardinals claimed he was snubbed because he is a Negro.

Officials of the Cardinals and the New York Yankees, both of whom train here, quickly labeled the situation a misunderstanding.

Wednesday night, the Chamber of Commerce issued a special "personal invitation" to all Negro ballplayers on both clubs to attend a breakfast it is sponsoring today.

White had said he and other Negro players were purposely omitted from the invitation list but Jim Toomey, public relations director of the Cardinals, answered that White was "all wrong."

The list, Toomey said, was composed at his direction only of players staying at the Cardinals' hotel (Vinoy Park) near the St. Petersburg Yacht Club where the breakfast was scheduled because the breakfast was convenient for them. He pointed out the list also excluded some white players, including Stan Musial.

Bob Fishel, the Yanks public relations man, said all members of the club were invited and added that he had told Elston Howard, Negro catcher, that he would be welcome to attend.

It could not be learned whether White, Howard or other Negro players of the two clubs would attend.

Four Teams Open Baseball Exhibition Season Friday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The world champion Pittsburgh Pirates are one of four teams that open the 1961 exhibition season Friday. They meet the Cincinnati Reds at Tampa, while the Detroit Tigers face the Chicago White Sox at Sarasota.

All clubs, including the Arizona and California trainees, are in action Saturday.

The majors' unsigned list continues to dwindle. Pancho Herrera, who says, "I no hit so many home runs, but I no strikeout so much either," arrived from Cuba, signed with the Philadelphia Phils, and promptly belted two homers during drill.

Other homer-hitters Wednesday in squad games included Wally Moon of the Los Angeles Dodgers, Ozzie Virgil, Jake Wood and George Thomas of the Tigers, Del Rice of the Los Angeles Angels and Walt Drope of the Baltimore Orioles.

Pitchers turning in top efforts included Roger Graig of the Dodgers, Art Ditmar and Ryne Duren of the Yankees and Bob Miller and Ray Sadecki of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Manager Alvin Dark of the San Francisco Giants temporarily lost a shortstop and a former shortstop to injuries, and Manager Al Lopez of the White Sox almost lost his second catcher this week.

San Francisco Giant shortstop Eddie Bressoud pulled a groin muscle attempting a double play, and outfielder Harvey Kuenn, one-time American League shortstop, suffered a muscle spasm in the right knee. Both will miss Saturday's exhibition opener with the Cleveland Indians.

White Sox catcher Bob Roselli stepped on a bat and limped into the clubhouse, but the diagnosis was only a mild sprain. Previously, catcher Camilo Carreon had four stitches taken in the index finger of his right hand.

The Pirates had two veterans

Feels He Ate Himself Out Of a Home

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Willie McCovey feels he ate himself out of a job after 1959 when he won rookie-of-the-year honors with the San Francisco Giants.

"I went to two and three banquets a week after that first season," he says. "And I really put on weight."

"After I had a bad year last season, I wasn't invited to so many dinners so I had a chance to keep my weight down. Even if I had been invited to a lot of them, I wouldn't have gone."

Willie, 23, showed he'd learned the eating lesson when he checked into the Giants spring training camp at 202 pounds compared with 220 a year ago. He's been impressive at bat these days, belting balls over both the right and left field fences.

"I feel 100 per cent better this spring," he said. "I'm not sluggish and can run with ease. That extra work hurt my legs and I had a pulled muscle last spring. My right knee had been operated on the year before and I think all the weight made it hurt. Now I'm working out without even a wrap on the knee and it feels good."

The 6-foot-4, left-handed hitting first baseman broke in with a bang on reporting to the Giants in mid-1959. He finished with a .354 average and 13 home runs in 52 games.

Last spring the sophomore jinx hit him and he couldn't hit the ball with any authority.

In an attempt to get him back on the beam, the Giants sent him to their Tacoma farm of the Pacific Coast League temporarily. He didn't do much better on his

Kentucky Cage Baron Sends Wildcats Against Vanderbilt

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer
Adolph Rupp, Kentucky's baron of basketball, sends his rallying Wildcats against Vanderbilt tonight in a bid to enter the NCAA championships for a record 12th time.

Kentucky, which did an incredible turnaround after winning but 8 of its first 15 games, and Vanderbilt meet on the University of Tennessee's neutral court at Knoxville in a play-off to determine the team the Southeastern Conference will send into the NCAA tournament.

The winner will advance to the semifinals of the NCAA regional tournament at Louisville March 17 to play the eventual winner of a first-round clash March 14 between Morehead's Ohio Valley Conference play-off champs and an at large team, either Xavier of Ohio or Chicago Loyola. It could bring together the SEC designate and Ohio State's mighty Buckeyes who also will play in the Midwest regional the 17th and 18th.

In the Ivy League, Penn may have caught Princeton's league return, finishing with a .238 average and 13 home runs in 101 games.

champs looking ahead to their NCAA Eastern regional meeting with George Washington in New York next Tuesday. Penn, with Sid Amira scoring 23 points and Bob Mikvy 21, crushed the Tigers, 88-63 to clinch second place.

Greg Heath's tip-in with two seconds left gave Brown a 79-77 triumph over Dartmouth and enabled the Bruins to share third place with Yale, which was upset by Harvard 67-63. Cornell, winding up with a 14-10 record, went out of the league and established a school single-game mark by crushing Syracuse 107-79.

Duquesne, a tournament hopeful but uninvited, wound up with a 14-7 record as Bob Slobodnik led the way with 28 points.

The NCAA Small College Tournament involving 32 teams begins at eight scattered points from coast-to-coasts with the eight winners of regional tournaments moving to the final showdown at Evansville, Indiana, March 16-17-18. Among the teams involved are Prairie View (Tex.), voted No. 1 small college team of the nation in the final weekly AP poll, defending champion Evansville, and the 2-3-4 finishers of last year's tourney, Chapman of California, Kentucky Wesleyan and Cornell of Iowa.

Electronic Teacher Could Speed Learning Processes

By G. K. HODENFIELD
AP Education Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—Suppose you could hook up a teaching machine to an electronic computer, plug in a student, and turn on a switch.

How much would the student learn, and how fast?

Much more and much faster than ever before, says Prof. Edwin McClintock of the University of Illinois.

The idea seems pretty far out, and it's still a long way from complete development. But McClintock and others at Illinois are convinced it's more than just an idle dream.

"It combines the best of the teaching machines, the best of the computers, and the best of the student-teacher relationship," McClintock said recently in an interview. "We haven't yet begun to apply our technological advances to the learning process, and it's time we did."

Here is how it would work: A program of instruction in mathematics, for instance, would be broken down into tiny bits and pieces of knowledge designed to lead the student from ignorance of the subject to mastery at his own speed. This is the basic idea of the so-called teaching machines.

The program of instruction would then be fed into an electronic computer on tapes, films and sound tracks.

Next, you plug in the student by attaching a device, similar to a lie detector, to his arm.

The student might be on his own, or working with a class. There might be a profe in the room, although this wouldn't be necessary.

With a flick of a switch, the machine would begin to present the material on one of several small screens facing the student. On another screen, a professor's face is seen as he discusses the material, with his voice coming from a recorded tape.

Once the problem had been presented, the student would begin to work it. He would do his work on a roll of paper which would be fed back into the machine.

If the student got bogged down, the machine would take note and a recorded voice would say, "Look, you need some help. Why don't you go see Professor Jones in Room 763?"

And if the device on the student's arm indicated he was merely flustered, the machine would say, "Here, let's take a break for a minute or two." While the student leaned back in his chair, soft music would be played to ease his tension.

"The only limit on what you can cover with this method is the amount of time you can devote to it," McClintock said.

One of the big advantages, McClintock added, is that it gives the professors more time for individual work with the students.

"In education, there must always be the student-teacher relationship," he said. "If we can perfect this idea, that relationship can be better, more intimate, than ever before."

Fraud Trial To Resume In Federal Court

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The fraud of restaurant manager August T. Rizzo resumes today in Federal Court.

Rizzo is accused of being the accomplice of Charles Betsher, former St. Louis general agent for the Franklin Life Insurance Co. of Springfield, Ill., in a scheme to defraud the firm and a policy holder through securing phony loans.

Betsher has pleaded guilty to the same seven counts under which Rizzo is now being tried.

Assistant U.S. Dist. Attorney Frederick Mayer said he would prove the scheme involved having Betsher secure the loan checks and turn them over to Rizzo who would arrange for them to be fraudulently endorsed and be cashed.

Defense Attorney Charles Shaw maintained Rizzo knew Betsher and sometimes cashed checks for him but was not aware Betsher was bilking the insurance company and a policy holder.

Negro Community Council Holds Meet

The Negro Community Council held its regular monthly meeting at the home of the president, Ralph Lee.

The president presented a four-joint program to the council to approve and complete during the year.

The council went on record to sponsor a boy in the coming Soap

Box Derby, and to plan a program to acquaint the citizens and the council with the Boy's Club that is being organized in this city.

Meats, Poultry, Fish

CHICKEN FRIED CUBE STEAK

Chef Finis A. Green
206 East Cooper, Sedalia

Take six cube steaks (1½ pound each). Whip one egg good and add to two cups milk, which has salt and pepper added to it. Mix thoroughly. Put each steak in this mixture; dredge in flour completely. Fry in hot shallow fat until brown but not done. Put steaks in a pan. Add flour to skillet and cook five minutes. Add enough water to make gravy to desired consistency. Add salt and pepper and one tablespoon Worcestershire sauce. Pour this over steaks. Put in oven and cook about 15 to 20 minutes.

BARBECUED CHICKEN

George F. Kellner
Smithton, Mo.

1 ready to cook chicken (3 or 3½ lbs., whole)
1 tsp. salt
Cooking oil or fat
Chicken barbecue sauce

Wash chicken; pat dry. Sprinkle inside with salt. Place on spit; secure with metal holders. Tie wings and drumsticks tightly to body of chicken with cotton cord. Place over low coals, start turning. Baste with oil. When chicken begins to brown, baste with chicken barbecue sauce about every 15 minutes until done. Over low coals, roast 50 to 60 minutes for each pound of chicken.

CHICKEN BARBECUE SAUCE

2 tbsps. brown sugar
1 tsp. paprika
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. dry mustard
½ tsp. chili powder
2 tbsps. Worcestershire sauce
3 tbsps. cooking oil
½ cup finely chopped onion
½ cup tomato juice
½ cup tomato catsup
¼ cup vinegar

Combine ingredients, cook over low heat about 15 minutes. Use as directed above.

LEMON BAKED FISH

Mrs. Jettie L. Lawson
631 North Osage, Sedalia

3 cups toasted ½-inch bread cubes
1 cup chopped fresh tomatoes
½ cup chopped cucumbers
½ teaspoon salt
½ tsp. pepper
4 tbsps. bottled or fresh lemon juice
½ cup melted butter or margarine
1 3-lb. white fish or other fish suitable for baking

Clean and split fish. Line a large shallow baking pan with foil. Grease. Place fish on foil. Make dressing by combining bread cubes, tomatoes, cucumbers, salt, pepper, bottled lemon juice, ¼ cup butter. Fill fish generously with stuffing. Do not skewer. Brush remaining butter to which one tablespoon lemon juice has been added over fish. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) for 30 minutes or until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork. Tear or cut away foil and transfer fish to serving plate.

CREAMED RABBIT

George F. Kellner
Smithton, Mo.

¾ tbsps. butter
¾ tbsps. flour
2½ cups milk (or milk plus rabbit broth)
Salt and pepper to taste
2½ cups cooked rabbit meat, coarsely cut
2 tbsps. lemon juice
1 tsp. cooked onion
1 hard-boiled egg, finely chopped

Melt butter and blend in the flour. Add milk gradually and cook over very low heat, stirring frequently, until smooth and thick. Add salt and pepper. Add rabbit meat and heat thoroughly, stirring occasionally. Stir in lemon juice and onion. Sprinkle the finely chopped hard-boiled egg over the top. Makes four servings.

LARGE BEEF ROAST

Chef Finis A. Green
206 East Cooper, Sedalia

Take a choice aged beef round, weighing 50 to 60 lbs. Place in large roasting pan. Add enough water to reach within one-half height of roaster. Cover with lid and place in oven heated to 450 degrees. Cook for about two hours at this temperature. Add salt, pepper, celery, onion and zesty seasoning. Reduce heat to 375 degrees and cook two hours longer. Reduce heat to 200 degrees and cook about four to 4½ hours. Add more water if needed and baste roast four or five times. Using this method you will have well done, medium, medium rare and rare meat with all being well seasoned. The heat cooks the roast from the layer of fat outside. This fat is important as it adds to the flavor. There will be plenty of stock to make gravy. When serving, start at the shank end, work around the roast toward the butt end.

ITALIAN MEAT SAUCE

Chef Finis A. Green
206 East Cooper, Sedalia

½ lb. ground beef
½ lb. pork sausage
1 No. 2½ can tomatoes
1 cup chopped onion
1 cup chopped celery
½ cup salad oil
2 tbsps. Lea and Perrins sauce
1 tsp. powdered garlic
1 tsp. salt
½ tsp. cayenne pepper
1 cup meat stock
1 small can mushroom pieces and stems

Put fat in heavy pot; add onions and celery; cook slowly until almost done; add meat, cook until brown. Add a little flour and cook five minutes, stirring constantly. Add other ingredients and cook slowly for 20 minutes. Serve over spaghetti, rice, eggs, ravioli or what have you.

BAKED WHOLE FISH

Chef Finis A. Green
206 East Cooper, Sedalia

1 large fish (halibut, cat or other type)

Wash fish thoroughly; let warm up to room temperature. Place in large baking pan, brush inside and all over with salad oil or butter. Season with salt, pepper and zesty seasoning. Pour over this a generous amount of catsup. Add two or three cups water. Dot with onion slices and chopped celery. Cover with foil and cook one hour. Add sliced stuffed olives on top of fish; cover and cook about 20 minutes longer. Serve the sauce from the pan with fish, along with lemon slices.

BARBECUED SPARERIBS

George F. Kellner
Box 188, Smithton, Mo.

Meaty ribs
1 large onion, sliced
2 cloves
1 bay leaf
1 tsp. salt

Allow one pound ribs for each serving. Cut in serving pieces; place in large kettle; cover with water. Add onion, cloves, bay leaf, salt. Cover; bring to boil. Reduce heat, simmer until almost done, 1 to 1½ hours. Remove from water; cover with barbecue sauce; let stand one to two hours. Drain ribs; grill over coals, turning and basting often with sauce. Cook until nicely browned, about 15 minutes.

BARBECUE SAUCE
¼ cup brown sugar, firmly packed
¼ cup vinegar
1 cup catsup
¼ cup finely chopped onion
¼ cup butter
2 tbsps. prepared mixed barbecue spices
½ tsp. salt
1 tbsps. Worcestershire sauce

Combine ingredients in sauce pan, bring to boil. Reduce heat; simmer about 15 minutes, stirring frequently. Use as directed. Makes enough for four pounds of ribs.

PAN FRIED RABBIT

Mrs. Evelyn R. Kellner
Box 188, Smithton, Mo.

Choose a nice young rabbit, about four pounds when dressed. Dis-joint rabbit into pieces. Break one small egg in bowl and add two or three tablespoons of milk. Mix well. Coat rabbit pieces in egg-milk mixture, then role in seasoned flour, coating pieces well. Use one cup flour, one teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper. Heat ½-inch cooking fat or oil in a heavy skillet or dutch oven and brown rabbit pieces. Start browning meaty pieces (back quarters and loin) first, slipping in the less meaty pieces as rabbit browns. Do not crowd. Turn as often as necessary to brown evenly. Use two spoons or kitchen tongs to turn. When rabbit is lightly browned, about 20 minutes, reduce heat, cover tightly and cook slowly until tender (40 to 60 minutes). If skillet cannot be covered tightly, add two or three tablespoons of water to form steam. It is desirable to turn pieces two or three times more for even cooking. Un-cover for last five to ten minutes for re-crisping coating. If desired, prepare gravy with the pan drippings. Peel and dice medium onion and saute in drippings. Add enough flour to make a thick paste and let lightly brown. Add water to make gravy of desired thickness. Add salt and pepper to taste. For a tangy flavor, add a teaspoonful or more of vinegar.

BAKED RABBIT HASH

George F. Kellner
Smithton, Mo.

2 cups finely chopped cooked rabbit meat
2 cups finely chopped raw potatoes
2 tbsps. chopped green pepper
1 cup finely chopped onion
½ tbsps. salt
Pepper to taste
½ cup rabbit broth (or water with 1 chicken bouillon cube)
½ cup fine dry whole wheat bread crumbs mixed with butter or margarine

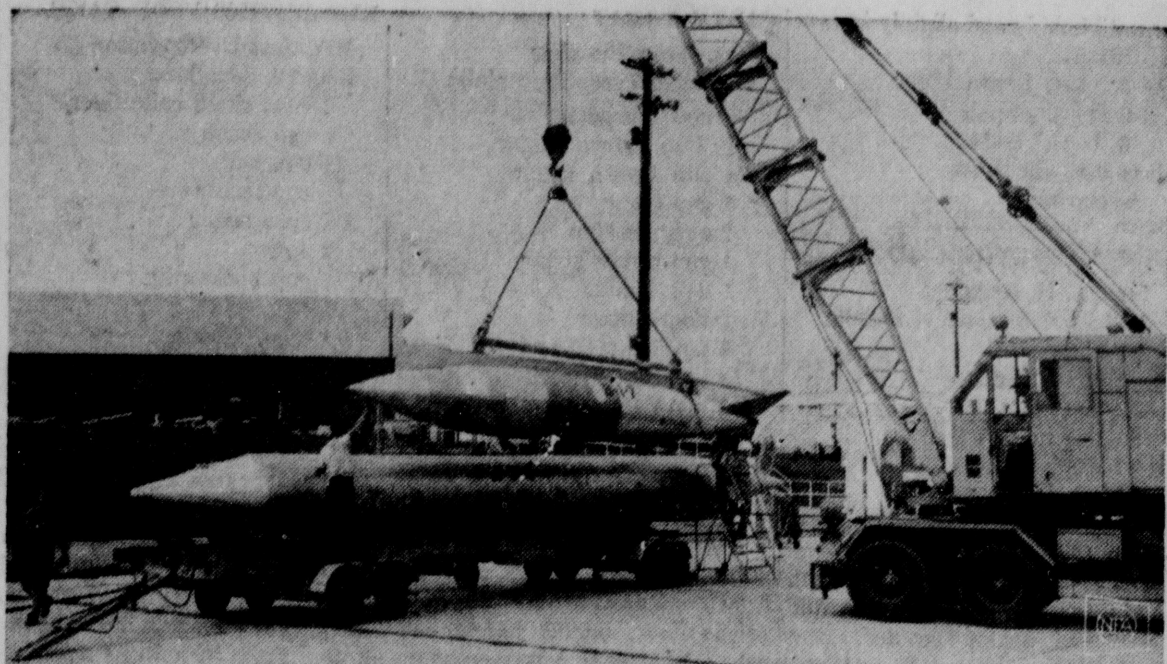

Mix all ingredients except the crumbs. Pile lightly into a greased baking dish or pan. Cover and bake at 350 degrees about 40 minutes. Remove cover and sprinkle crumbs over the hash. Bake uncovered 20 minutes longer to brown. (Four servings, one cup each.)

SHRIMP JAMBALAYA

Chef Finis A. Green
206 East Cooper, Sedalia

1 cup chopped onion
¼ cup chopped celery
¼ cup chopped green pepper
½ tsp. garlic powder or garlic salt
1 No. 2½ can tomatoes
½ tsp. pepper
1 bay leaf, crushed
½ tsp. thyme
1 tsp. mono sodium glutamate
1 cup diced cooked ham
1 tsp. salt
1 tbsps. chopped parsley
½ cups rice
2 cups meat stock
2 pkgs. (7-oz.) shrimp

Put all the above ingredients in a large pan and mix thoroughly. But remember to lay shrimp on top. Cover with lid and let cook slowly for 30 minutes. Serve hot with a tossed green salad and toasted cheese crackers or melba toast.

RABBIT SANDWICH SPREAD

George F. Kellner
Smithton, Mo.

1 cup finely chopped cooked rabbit meat
2 tbsps. finely chopped onion

½ cup finely chopped celery
¼ cup finely chopped sweet pickle or pickle relish
2 tbsps. finely chopped green pepper
½ cup mayonnaise or thick salad dressing
Salt and pepper to taste
Roquefort cheese

Mix all ingredients well, except cheese. Keep cold and use within a week. Makes 1½ cups, enough for six sandwiches, ¼ cup each. To use toast the bread slices and spread with cheese which has been warmed so it will spread smoothly; spread the rabbit spread on top. Garnish with lettuce leaf.

SOUTHERN FRIED PIG'S FEET

Chef Finis A. Green
206 East Cooper, Sedalia

Take three or four pig's feet, put them in a pot, cover with water, add three or four bay leaves, one tablespoon salt, ½ teaspoon cayenne pepper, one medium size onion and one tablespoon vinegar. Cook them slowly until tender.

Remove from pot and cool. Make a batter like a hot cake mixture. But before cooking pig's feet, split each foot in half. Dip each foot in batter and fry in a skillet of hot fat like you would a chicken. When brown on all sides, take out and drain on absorbent paper or rack. Serve with hot slaw or hot potato salad.

RABBIT A LA MISSOURI

George F. Kellner
Box 188, Smithton, Mo.
8 to 9½ pound roasting rabbit
1½ tsp. salt
4 tbsps. butter
2½ cups soft whole wheat bread crumbs
2 stalks celery, sliced, cut to length
¼ tsp. pepper
8 small onions
1½ cups heavy cream
1½ green peppers, sliced thin
Start oven at 325 degrees. Leave rabbit whole and rinse inside and outside with cool water. Mix ½ teaspoon salt and the pepper together, dampen your fingers so the mixture will adhere to them, and rub inside of rabbit with the salt and pepper mixture. Truss (close opening) and place in roasting pan and dot outside with butter. Bake uncovered 30 minutes. Meanwhile peel onions and cut into quarters. Mix onions with bread crumbs, cream and ½ teaspoon salt. At end of 30 minute baking time, spoon bread-onion mixture around rabbit, cover now and bake 30 minutes longer, then remove cover and bake until tender and browned. Serve with baked beans and green tossed salad.

NOKOMIS SPECIAL

Mrs. Jettie L. Lawson
631 North Osage, Sedalia
1 fryer, disjointed
1 egg, slightly beaten
1 tsp. cooking oil
1½ tsp. salt
¼ tsp. pepper
½ cup cornmeal
Cooking oil for deep frying
Dip chicken in egg mixed with one tablespoon cooking oil, salt and pepper. Coat with corn meal. Deep fry in cooking oil heated to moderate temperature (350 degrees) until browned and tender. Serves four.

BAKED RABBIT

George F. Kellner
Smithton, Mo.
Roll a cut up rabbit (about three pound roaster) in seasoned flour and brown. Put in pan large enough for each piece to be on the bottom of the pan. Pour one cup cream and two cups whole milk over the rabbit. Bake 1½ hours at 325 degrees. Sprinkle ¾ cup rolled cracker meal over top after turning last time. Sprinkle paprika over meat and bake 15 minutes longer with oven heat lowered to 275 degrees.

ROAST LOIN OF PORK

Rev. Doyle Ross Mabry
208 West 17th, Sedalia
Have loin of pork backbone loosened from ribs so carving will be easy. Sprinkle seasoned meat tenderizer on all surfaces of the loin of pork. (Allow ½ teaspoon per pound.) Sprinkle with flour and black pepper to suit taste. Wrap in aluminum foil and place in open roasting pan, fat-side up, rit ends down. Place in moderate oven (350 degrees). Bake until done, allowing 30 minutes to the pound. If meat thermometer is used, it should be inserted into the center of the loin of pork, clear of bone or fat before meat is put into oven; when done, thermometer should register 185 degrees. Drain off excess clear fat, leaving rich brown drippings for making gravy of this flavorful residue. Gravy may be seasoned with sage if desired.

HAM-ON-A-SPIT

George F. Kellner
Smithton, Mo.
1 boneless ham roll, fully cooked (5 lbs.)
½ cup catsup
2 tbsps. brown sugar
1 tsp. mild vinegar
1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
1 tsp. butter
Peel casing from ham. Insert spit lengthwise through center. Secure with metal holders. Tie cord around ham tightly at three or four inch intervals. Place over coals and start turning. Roast about 1½ hours. Combine remaining ingredients in saucepan. Heat to boiling. Use to baste ham last 30 minutes of cooking time. Makes 12 to 16 servings.

RABBIT MEAT LOAF

George F. Kellner
Smithton, Mo.
3½ to 4 lb. roasting rabbit
Bread crumbs
1 or 2 eggs
Herbs as desired
Grated onion
Chopped celery
Chopped green npeppers
½ cup tomato soup
Cut meat off the bones. Grind the meat and mix with bread crumbs, egg, herbs, onion, celery and gree peppers. To this mixture add ½ cup tomato soup, mix in well and shape into loaf. Place in loaf pan and pour the balance of tomato soup over the loaf and bake 1½ to two hours, depending on size of rabbit, in oven at 350 to 375 degrees.

½ cup brown sugar
½ cup brown sugar
1 cup flour
2 eggs, beaten
1 cup brown sugar
1 tsp. vanilla
2 tbsps. flour
1 tsp. baking powder
½ tsp. salt
1 cup nuts
1 cup coconut
Mix margarine, brown sugar and one cup flour like pie crust. Pad in bottom of pan. Bake ten minutes. Mix beaten eggs, one cup brown sugar, vanilla, two table-spoons flour, baking powder and salt. Add nuts and coconut. Spread over first mixture and bake to golden brown.

RED DEVIL'S FOOD CAKE

Mrs. Jess E. Thompson
Route 2, Sedalia
2 cups sifted cake flour
½ cup cocoa
¼ tsp. salt
¼ cup butter
1½ cups sugar
2 eggs
½ cup buttermilk
1 tsp. soda
1 tsp. vinegar
½ cup boiling water
1 tsp. vanilla
Cream butter; add sugar ¼ cup at a time and cream until smooth. Add well-beaten eggs, mix well. Dissolve soda in sour milk. Add alternately with flour, which has been sifted with cocoa and salt three times. Add vinegar and vanilla; beat well. Stir in the boiling water. Bake in a lined cake pan in a moderate oven for about 40 minutes.

Tune Up Your Funnybones, National Laugh Week Nears

By FRANCIS STILLEY
NEW YORK (AP) — Get your funnybones tuned up folks. You'll want to be ready for the big event coming up April 3-10: National Laugh Week.

Some of you may be out of condition for this, for lack of enough things to laugh about these days. In that case, you'll doubtless want to prepare for the big ha-ha fest. So here is our handy program of easy exercises, especially designed to ginger up your guffawing by April 3:

For the rest of this week: Try smiling for a minute or two once an hour—while working on your income tax return.

Second week: Turn on a big grin at assorted moments—such as when you keep getting threatening letters about overdue bills.

Third week: Practice giggling—after household disasters, such as Junior spilling a gallon of molasses on the living room rug.

Fourth week: Time now for the restrained belly laugh. An excellent occasion would be upon learning you've got to have a new roof put on the house.

Fifth week: You should be ready now for the big showdown test: The howler. Do it while considering that your rich uncle has cut you out of his will.

Friends, if you can do all that, you are obviously ready for National Laugh Week.

National Laugh Week is a project of National Laugh Enterprises of New York. A memo from the NLE says:

"The National Laugh Enterprises was formed in 1945 to promote a national sense of humor. It represents the National Association of Gagwriters, which tries to discover, develop and encourage creative performers and writers in the Seven Laffing Arts—radio-TV, stage, screen, cartoons, literature, music and dance."

The NLE also sponsors meetings at which people get together and laugh, anytime and anywhere they feel like it.

Furthermore, it has a broad program to try to keep people chuckling all the year round: Save the Pun Week in January, National Laugh Week in April, National Humor Week in June and Pass the Laugh Week in October.

Between times, the NLE tries to maneuver the mirth movement

MUSICAL UPS AND DOWNS

DENVER (AP) — Leslie J. Fore, who runs an elevator at the Colorado Historical Museum, is a former dance band leader. He estimates he has 50,000 pieces of sheet music in his collection, including 107 that have some reference to Colorado.

with a number of projects.

One of these is, according to the NLE, a "humor report to the nation" presented annually to Congress.

"Remember," says the NLE memo, "humor is therapy. Won't you join our crusade for a happier world through humor? Laugh. It's good for you."

Vincent Schreck Attends 5-Day Religious Meet

Army PFC Vincent L. Schreck, whose wife Martha, lives at 1637 Country Club Drive, recently attended a five-day religious retreat at the Army's Far East retreat site near Seoul in Korea.

Protestant, Catholic and Jewish chaplains alternate planning the program of the retreats, which include group discussions, individual conferences and guided tours of areas near the site. The purpose of the retreat is to provide the soldier with an opportunity to meditate and discuss religious matters with a chaplain of his faith.

Schreck, a clerk in Company A of the 27th Ordnance Battalion, entered the Army in January, 1960, completed basic training at Fort Leonard Wood.

The 24-year-old soldier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew G. Schreck, Route 1, Tipton, is a 1954 graduate of St. John's Seminary, Kansas City and a 1956 graduate of the seminary's college. He attended the Kenrick Seminary, St. Louis.

Filming Is Cheaper On Studio Sets

By BO BTHOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The troubles with "Cleopatra" underscore the movie industry's growing disenchantment with filming overseas. More and more, producers are coming to this conclusion: Unless there is a good reason not to, shoot it here.

Reason is that studios have some assurance in Hollywood that weather, working conditions and players' health will be fairly predictable. Whatever savings can be made by cheaper sets and extras abroad can be wiped out by lengthy delays, as with "Cleopatra."

The whole town has been wondering why 20th Century-Fox would try to film an Egyptian spectacle in an English winter. Equally puzzling is why MGM would plan exteriors of "Mutiny on the Bounty" during the Tahitian rainy season.

"Mutiny" finally got rained out and returned to Culver City for interiors. But another crisis struck with the switch of directors from Carol Reed to Lewis Milestone.

Bob Hope was in top form at the Producers Guild dinner honoring Adolph Zukor. Hope should be a lesson to all comics, politicians and public figures; whether his audience is 600 or 60 million, he always comes loaded with fresh, bright material.

Hope had a lot of fun kidding his fellow ski-nose, Richard M.

Home from Oklahoma

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Olson returned home Monday after spending ten days with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Olson, Oklahoma City, Okla., and their granddaughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Price, Linda and Ronald, Blackwell, Oklahoma.

Enroute home they were guests of Mrs. B. S. Buckridge, Guthrie, Oklahoma.

Nixon. They sandwiched Gina Lollobrigida on the dais and Hope cracked: "We'd better not lean too close to this poor girl or we'll cut her to ribbons."

There was much talk about Nixon's seeking a new job. Hope remarked that former President Dwight D. Eisenhower was more interested in playing golf—"Now he can find out who he can really beat."

Jayne Mansfield reports that she recorded an album during her recent stand at the Dunes in Nevada. The title: "Jayne Mansfield Busts Up Last Vegas."

Arrangements Made

Blind Boone Concert Set For March 15 in Columbia

Final arrangements for the Blind Boone Memorial Concert have been announced by State Senator A. Baise Vanlandingham, president of the sponsoring group. The concert, to be held March 15, at Brewer Field House in Columbia, will feature the piano artistry of Robert R. "Ragtime Bob" Darch playing the music of John William "Blind" Boone, a world-famous Missouri composer and concert pianist. Both classical and ragtime numbers will be included on the program. University of Missouri groups will be featured also; the Madrigal Singers, under the direction of Thomas Mills, and the University concert orchestra under the direction of Charles Emmons, which will perform works of the great Columbia composer.

Darch, who is well known to thousands of Missourians who heard him play last summer at the State Fair in Sedalia, will play Boone's classical compositions, his two ragtime compositions and a number of arrangements for which the Columbia musician was famous. Darch, who is presently the headliner at the Escape Hotel in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., will arrive in Columbia, March 12, to begin final rehearsals for the concert. He is currently practicing from Boone's own scores, with hand-punched piano rolls made by Boone some 60 years ago.

Darch has almost single-handedly revived a national interest in classical ragtime which originated in Missouri. As a musician, musical historian and writer, Darch has explored the lives and musical works of many Missouri music men of 60 years ago, including Boone. While Boone was primarily a performer on the concert stage of classics and songs, he also played and composed some ragtime numbers in the best Missouri tradition. By including negro songs, many of them his own compositions, he was credited with having introduced negro spirituals to the concert stage. He described his mixture of humorous songs with classics as "putting the cookies on the lower shelf so everyone can get at them."

The newly formed Foundation is sponsoring the concert, both to revive the music, and as a fund-raiser to establish a memorial scholarship fund, for young Missourians in the future for musical studies. Over 80 initial sponsors have been secured for the concert, including Gov. John M. Dalton, who, as a young man, knew and heard Boone play. The Foundation has an objective of 200 sponsors and is inviting inquiries from Missourians who knew Boone, or are interested in the Foundation program.

In order to promote interest in the scholarship program, the sponsorship program has been set up in three different parts. First, some interested persons want to be listed as sponsors, including some people out of Columbia, who cannot attend the concert. They contribute $10, without receiving tickets, and will receive an acknowledgment that can be used for tax purposes, as well as a copy of the souvenir program.

The second group includes those persons who wish to contribute the $10 and receive a ticket. The third sponsorship is a double one, usually for husband and wife, which amounts to $15 with two tickets issued. Adjacent tickets may be ordered at $2.50 each. Application has been made for tax-deductible status for subscriptions to the Foundation. It is anticipated that approval will be secured, and subscriptions above the cost of tickets will be deductible for income-tax purposes.

Bob Darch

Honored With Dinner On 82nd Birthday

Mrs. Mayme Hudson, Windsor, was honored with a dinner Sunday celebrating her 82nd birthday at the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kerr.

Besides the honored guest were: Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wallace and Russell, Miss Karen Heidebrecht, Overland Park, Kan.; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Malin, Joe and Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kerr, Theresa, Mary Rae, and Rose Marie, Miss Andres Sickler, Kansas City; Mr. and Mrs. James East, Raytown; Mr. and Mrs. Ora Edwards, Sedalia; Mrs. Gladys East, Calhoun; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Phifer and Carol Jane, and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kerr.

Country Crossroads Garden Club Meets

A meeting of the Country Crossroads Garden Club was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Andrew Droege. There were nine members and four children present.

Mrs. Christy Eckhoff, president, presided during the business meeting.

Robert Hunter, Kansas City, who is from the State Highway Department, gave a talk on "Roadside Parks."

Mrs. Anna Winston and Mrs. N. W. Dirck were in charge of the program, which was "Trees and Shrubs."

Dr. Philip C. Brooks

Truman Library Director Is Sorosis Meet Speaker

Dr. Philip C. Brooks, director of the Harry S. Truman Library, Independence, gave a very informative talk on the library and museum at Sorosis Monday afternoon at Heard Memorial Club House. He stated it is a national institution, built not as a memorial but to preserve the papers, books and historical mementos of former President Truman and make them available to the people in a place suitable for study and research.

This is one of two presidential libraries now open, he said. The other is the Franklin D. Roosevelt library at Hyde Park. The Eisenhower library is soon to be opened at Abilene, Kan. Also, the Herbert Hoover library is underway, Dr. Brooks stated.

In the earlier years the heirs could take care of the presidents' papers but many times they did not. Washington took his with him because he considered them personal. Papers and documents of some of the presidents were burned.

Roosevelt being conscious of the value of the papers as well as books, photographs, recordings and gifts, felt there should be a place where they would be kept permanently and donations of several thousands of dollars built the library at Hyde Park.

Truman followed and a private corporation built and furnished the Truman library through funds donated by individuals and organizations in all parts of the country. Adjacent to Slover Park in Independence the crescent shaped Indiana limestone library building stands on a knoll facing U. S. Highway 24.

In the lobby is a large colorful mural painting, "Independence and the Opening of the West," by Thomas Hart Benton, noted Missouri artist.

In the lobby, too, Dr. Brooks said, are many gifts, one of which is a sword from the King of Saudi Arabia and it is set with diamonds and an emerald that is more precious than the diamonds. Among other gifts are beautiful Satsuma vases from Japan; the original plaster mold of the monument depicting the flag raising on Iwo Jima and the large 12x17 Persian rug given President Truman by the Shah of Persia.

The President's office is an exact duplicate of the one in Washington and upon entering there is a two minute recording in Mr. Truman's voice.

Three have been 180,000 people who have visited the museum since it has been opened and about 65,000 have been grade school and high school age. There are Scouts and other groups, college students from all over the nation and large groups of foreign students. Mr. Truman is a favorite guide and he enjoys taking the young people through and explaining things to them.

Truman starts his day at the library at 5:30 and has a staff of four. He is always most genial and cordial, Dr. Brooks said. Dr. Brooks asked that anyone who may have papers, documents, political campaign material, books or pictures during the Truman administration, to contact the library.

The museum pieces are almost entirely of gifts to Mr. Truman and there were 517 packing boxes of them when the library building was completed, with all of these things to be arranged. The library has almost 40,000 books and pamphlets.

Mr. Truman, when he talks to groups, stresses things that face a president that people will have a better understanding of a president. The difficulties he has and why he needs your support and consideration regardless of your political beliefs.

Dr. Brooks, in addition to talking on the Truman Library, also told of the historic Jackson County jail and marshal's home and museum in Independence.

The Jackson County jail was authentically restored and opened to the public under the auspices of the Jackson County Historical Society in 1959 as a museum. The building was built in 1859 and used as a military headquarters during the Civil War. This work was made possible by membership dues and gifts from friends.

It houses the collections of the Society in the fireproof museum and manuscript vaults formerly the stone cells of the old jail.

The marshal's living quarters in front of the jail, have also been authentically restored with period wallpaper, carpeting and furnishings.

This is now the headquarters of the historical society and members donate time to escort visitors through. They have set hours and an admission of 50 cents.

Dr. Brooks was introduced by Miss Marian Phipps, current topics chairman, who also introduced Mrs. Brooks.

Mrs. James E. McNeil, president, presided over the meeting.

The next meeting will be held March 20.

Vermont Community Club Holds Luncheon

The Vermont Community Club held its March meeting in the home of Mrs. Hubert Arnold with a contributive dish luncheon at noon.

The president, Mrs. Ed Langkop, presided during the business meeting. Hostess gifts were presented Mrs. Arnold.

Those present were: Mrs. Ed Langkop, Mrs. George Harned, Mrs. Carl Brandes, Mrs. Harold Hein, Mrs. Tommy Hazlett, Mrs. J. B. Jones, Miss Nell Jones, Mrs. D. D. # Executive Is Going Back To His Work

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A Westinghouse Electric Corp. sales manager, one of two executives freed from prison after serving 26 days on charges of price-fixing, said today he plans to go back to work but that he didn't know exactly when.

This was the only comment from Charles I. Mauntel, 60, when he was reached at his home in suburban Drexel Hill following his release Tuesday from the Montgomery County prison in Norristown, Pa.

Mauntel indicated he was in no mood to answer reporter's questions.

Mauntel is sales manager of the firm's steam and turbine division here. Westinghouse announced shortly after its executives were sentenced that the firm would take no disciplinary action against them.

John H. Chiles, 57, of Sharon, Pa., vice president in charge of the firm's transformer plant here, the other executive released Tuesday, could not be reached immediately for comment.

Mauntel and Chiles were among seven electrical equipment manufacturing firm executives jailed in the giant antitrust case last month.

Chief Judge J. Cullen Ganey of U. S. District Court, who sentenced the seven to 30 days, authorized the release of Mauntel and Chiles on a petition by their attorney to reduce their sentences to 26 days because of their "exemplary behavior" in prison.

Court officials announced that the other executives, who began serving their sentences after Mauntel and Chiles, also will be released four days early.

Scheduled for release Friday are William S. Ginn, 45, Schenectady, N. Y., General Electric Co. vice president who earns $135,000 a year; Lewis J. Burger, 48, Fort Wayne, Ind., and George E. Burrows, Cleveland, also from GE; and Edwin R. Jung, 58, vice president and director of Clark Controlling Co. of Cleveland.

John M. Cook, 54, vice president of Cutler-Hammer Inc. of Milwaukee is scheduled for release Saturday.

After serving the first week of their terms in the main stone building of the 112-year-old jail, the men served their time in the nearby prison farm operated by Montgomery County. During daytime hours they worked in the office for 20 cents a day reshaping prison files.

Judge Ganey, in addition to jailing the seven, fined 29 of the nation's biggest electrical firms and 44 of their executives a total of $1,924,500. The defendants were accused of fixing prices and rigging bids in the sale of heavy electrical equipment.

Chillingworth Case

Bitter Legal Fight Shapes In a Florida Murder Trial

FORT PIERCE, Fla. (AP)—A bitter legal fight was shaping up today in the Chillingworth murder trial.

Principals in the duel were State Atty. Phil O'Connell and the chief defender, Carlton Welch. Even before the jury selection was completed Tuesday, they had locked horns several times.

O'Connell, a one-time professional boxer, will battle to the finish for a death penalty for Joseph A. Peel Jr., the man the state says ordered the underworld executions of Circuit Judge C. E. Chillingworth and his wife in 1955.

The tall, loose-limbed Welch is just as determined to convince the jury that Peel, his friend and fraternity brother, should go free. "There should be no compromise," Welch told the all-male jury.

On the sidelines but definitely not out of the play, is Peel, 37, a man lost in the wreckage of a once-bright legal career.

Peel keeps up a running conference with his attorneys and appears to be quarterbacking his own defense in the fight for his life.

In better days, the handsome Peel was an adept politician and considered a likely future prospect for governor of Florida. But when he was city judge of West Palm Beach, O'Connell told the jury in his opening statement, Peel actually was a racketeer taking protection money from gamblers and moonshiners.

Floyd A. (Lucky) Holzapfel, a strongarm hoodlum, and George

(Bobby) Lincoln, a bigtime Negro moonshiner, worked for Peel, O'Connell said.

In return for protection payments, the state attorney related, the illegal operators got advance tipoffs from Peel when they were marked for police raids.

Then Circuit Judge Joseph White charged Peel with dishonest conduct in his law practice for falsely telling a client that her divorce was final and allowing her to remarry illegally.

The result, O'Connell said, was murder.

"Judge White told Peel a disbarment hearing would be held before Judge Chillingworth the morning of June 15, 1955," O'Connell said.

Peel then ordered the elimination of Chillingworth, the state attorney contended, and on June 15 his sentence was carried out by Holzapfel and Lincoln, the confessed killers.

Welch, questioning the "testimony of hoodlums," said the state had built a weird sort of a case.

First, he said, the prosecutors had obtained Lincoln's confession only after giving him immunity in two murder cases.

Lincoln has stated that he and Holzapfel killed the Chillingworths and also committed the 1958 slaying of Lew Harvey, a Jacksonville moonshiner.

Welch also challenged the methods of the State Sheriff's Bureau, whose investigators, he said, were inspired by a desire to collect have a joint agreement to "meet the threat of the tyranny of Communism." In the jungle interior, control of specific areas is indefinite, but all three of the united sections have been penetrated by Lumumba supporters. Antoine Gizenga, who aspires to Lumumba's mantle, is believed to control nearly half of the Congo.

Judge Calls Police When Man Moves Car

DETROIT (AP) — Rodulf Wilcox' car was blocked by another in a private parking lot near Recorder's Court Tuesday.

Wilcox, 43, opened a window of the other car, carefully took it out of gear, and began pushing it out of the way with a friend's help.

From a fifth floor window all this was observed by the car's owner—Judge W. McKay Skillman.

Police moved in. Wilcox appeared before the judge. The judge let him go without penalty—on Wilcox' promise to pay up on a delinquent traffic violation discovered in the process.

some of the $100,000 rewards in the Chillingworth case.

Holzapfel, Welch said, was trapped during a drinking session in a Melbourne motel into telling a story of the Chillingworth killings. Sheriff's Bureau agents concealed in another room recorded the tale on tape.

Frenchman Makes His Home in a Wardrobe

SAINT-BRIEUC, France (AP) — Jean-Baptiste Bellec, 46, a bricklayer, has been living in an oversized wardrobe in a Brittany field for three years, ever since his wife turned him out of the house.

Bellec makes his bed in the drawer of the wardrobe, stores his food under the bedding and hangs his clothes in the upper part.

Call for Wallet Is Downfall Of Forgery Suspect

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Guadalupe Longoria Acosta complained bitterly to the FBI that police held his billfold although he had been released from jail. An agent accompanied Acosta to the county jail where Acosta had been freed following questions about government checks stolen from mail boxes.

But only the agent left the jail. Acosta was placed under $5,000 bond after arraignment on charges of forging and passing a U.S. Treasury check.

The FBI explained that positive identification of Acosta had just been made when he telephoned about his billfold.

Vigilantes May Ride In Depressed Region

HARLAN, Ky. (AP) — Vigilantes may ride in Harlan County, deep in the eastern Kentucky mountains once known for strife and violence.

Circuit Judge Edward G. Hill, commenting on numerous food and clothing thefts in this depressed coal field, said unpaid volunteers are available to stop new threats of lawlessness.

He added that the sheriff's office doesn't have enough officers to cope with the problem.

Rugged Highway Problems

The exact status of the developing 41,000-mile interstate highway system needs to be cleared up.

It isn't proper to say it's "behind schedule" in the matter of miles of road constructed, since federal officials say there are no year-to-year mileage deadlines. The only goal is to finish the entire network by 1972.

Right now the record shows 8,000 miles built and another 2,300 miles of previously constructed toll roads, tunnels and bridges drawn into the system.

Construction is under way on another 4,100 miles, with engineering work or land acquisition proceeding on 10,000 more. Altogether, work has been completed or begun on nearly 25,000 miles, about 60 per cent of the total.

When President Kennedy says the program is in trouble, he means it could have trouble getting up the money to finish by 1972.

The 90 per cent or more of cost generally supplied by the federal government can, under the law, come only from revenues fed into the special highway fund from gasoline taxes and other highway user levies.

With the total price tag for the program having already been boosted several times to cover rising costs, the judgment is that the 1972 deadline can't be met from presently authorized revenue sources. Completion would have to be stretched out to 1977.

Mounting evidence gleaned by House committee and independent investigators shows that the "rising costs" include untold millions of dollars scandalously lost—through lack of proper federal control—in graft, extravagant waste, and mismanagement at some state levels.

To do the job on time means digging up another $9.7 billion. The President thinks it can be done if Congress will keep the existing four cent federal gasoline tax and add new, stiffer levies on the big trucks which use the roads.

The overall cost picture won't be affected by Kennedy's order directing immediate release of $724 million which normally would have been allotted from the fund in the months up to June 30.

About 10 states, including New York, Ohio, Texas, California, Missouri and the Dakotas are sufficiently advanced in planning to put the money quickly to use. Here and there, contract letting may also be speeded. But in many areas the money can't be handled now. Already allotted funds are backed up, waiting for plans.

For the long pull, however, the problem of rocketing costs has to be met tomorrow.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

UN May Take Red China in 6 Months

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Republican senators will be irked when they hear about it, but Ambassador Adlai Stevenson has warned President Kennedy that the United States will have to make up its mind fairly soon about the admission of Red China into the United Nations.

His warning was coupled with the advice that, whether we like it or not, the United Nations will vote to admit Red China this fall.

What's happened is that the British, who previously sided with us in blocking Red China, have now reversed themselves. They have gone further, and given American diplomats advance word that they will campaign vigorously for China's admission.

Japan, which previously sided with the United States, is also ready to vote for China. And Brazil, staunch friend of the USA in the past, has already announced that it will recognize Red China.

Since Red China failed of admission by only six votes last fall, Stevenson has informed Kennedy that we are certain to be outvoted at the next general assembly. What we have to do, Stevenson indicated, is to make up our minds whether we should continue opposing the inevitable or try to get some Communist concessions regarding Formosa in return for a favorable vote.

Friend of the Brass Hats

Cong. Carl Vinson of Milledgeville, Ga., is such a strong champion of the armed services that he is nicknamed "Admiral." As chairman of the House armed services committee, he has quietly killed an investigation which caused great embarrassment to his friends the brass hats in the Pentagon.

A little over a year ago, Cong. Frank Kowalski of Connecticut, a former Army colonel, started an investigation of the manner in which GI's were used as servants. He uncovered some startling information, including an amazing manual issued by the Air Force, instructing GI's on "How to Wash a Dog." He found that enlisted men were used as babysitters, grass cutters, dishwashers, and for other menial jobs.

Cong. Kowalski, recently re-elected to Congress, planned to delve further into the use of enlisted men as personal servants. However, the chairman of the armed services committee has come to the rescue of his friends in the Pentagon. He has firmly but quietly killed the GI servants investigation.

Sports Humor in Russia

The Harlem Globetrotters, famous Negro basketball team which plays in the nation's capital this week under the auspices of Big Brothers and to combat juvenile delinquency, found that basketball humor was not entirely appreciated in Moscow.

The Globetrotters played before capacity crowds in the Lenin sports palace during their Moscow tour but had to tone down some of their favorite gags.

"One gag is when one of the players gets mad at the umpire and bounces the ball off his head," reported Dave Zinkoff, the Philadelphia Warrior-Globetrotter sports announcer. "When this happened the first day we played in Moscow you could hear a gasp go up from the crowd."

"The authority of an official—the umpire—had been challenged, and in Russia you don't challenge the authority of an official. That's why the crowd gasped. After that we cut out our gag involving the umpire."

The Globetrotters continue popular in Soviet bloc countries, and next summer will play in Poland, Hungary and Czechoslovakia.

Unpaid GOP Debt

While the Democratic national committee is still struggling with one of the largest debt hangers ever inherited from a presidential campaign, an unexpected debt has also developed for the Republicans. Usually the GOP isn't troubled by debts.

This time, however, GOP finance chairman Courtney Burton is irritated over the unpaid campaign expenses that have been dumped in his lap by the Nixon-Lodge volunteers. Bills reported to total around $900,000 have poured in from the volunteers, which has turned the GOP surplus at the end of the campaign into a $600,000 deficit.

What particularly irks some Republicans is the fact that the Nixon-Lodge volunteers had a considerable surplus salted away in various bank accounts around the country at election time. Some Republicans estimate the surplus at around $700,000. And they suspect that this money is being held out to finance Nixon's campaign for renomination in 1964.

Not long ago Nixon sent autographed photos and small remembrances to hundreds of GOP county chairmen and other Republican leaders. The former vice president does not have the personal means to pay for such a flood of mementoes. Meanwhile, the volunteers' unpaid bills were dumped on the Republican national committee.

Thoughts for Today

WHOSE BROTHER?

By Stephen P. Kennedy, Commissioner, New York City Police Department

Prejudice is evil. It destroys man's spirit, warps his mind, and blinds him to his own true reason for existence.

Prejudice is found everywhere and must be fought everywhere it is found. It flourishes on ignorance, false rumor and misunderstanding. It must be sought out and exposed for what it is—a tragic degradation of man.

When a recruit enters the Police Department, he is the product of his environment. No matter how carefully screened, he brings with him all the strengths and weaknesses resulting from his background.

For this reason I have insisted that as soon as a recruit begins his training he examine prejudice. He is taught what science has discovered concerning races of man; that intelligence and strength and honesty are unrelated to race; that color of skin, texture of hair, and similar differences in appearance are superficial. In short, that each man is more like his neighbor than unlike him.

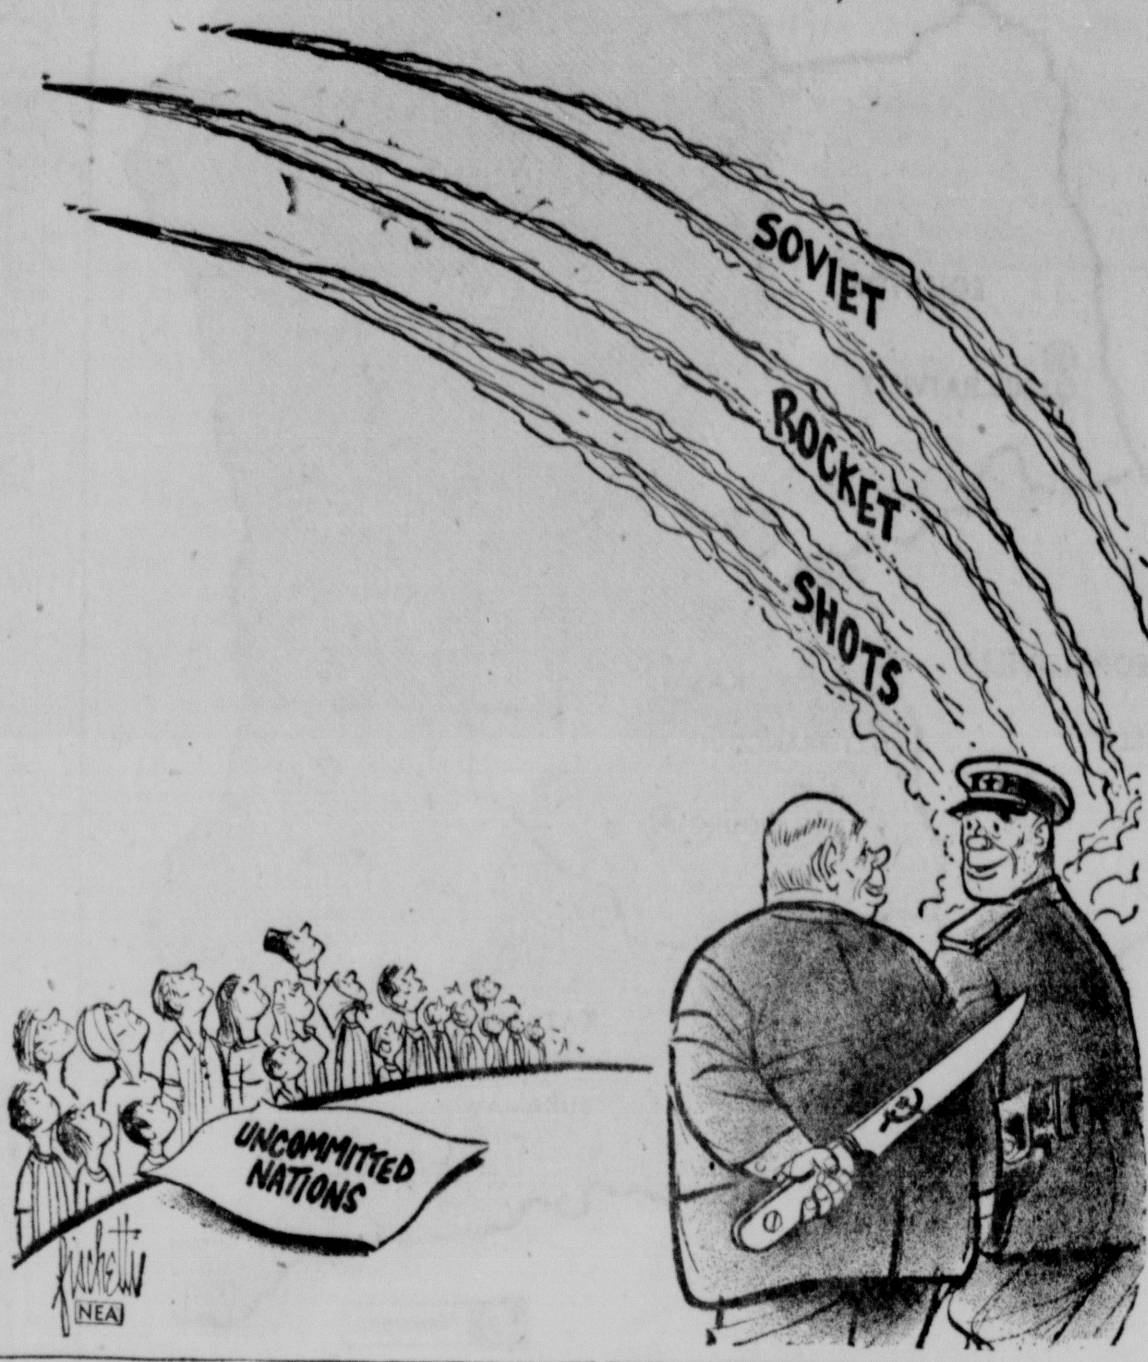

He is reminded that every great religion teaches the brotherhood of man and each emphasizes that salvation is not based on race or color. He is encouraged to examine his conscience in the light of his own religious beliefs to realize that this is so and that charity toward all men is the Creator's rule of life.

It would be well if we all pondered and weighed the admonition of Christ: "Do to other men all that you would have them do to you: this is the law and the prophets." Because of man's failure to obey this command, we must support costly law enforcement agencies to guard against, and battle the violators of the Golden Rule. Yet each of us knows in his heart and soul what is the right thing to do and that each of us is the other's brother. As the years go by and the world grows smaller and smaller we realize this more and more.

Progress is exasperatingly slow. We take two steps forward—then falter—and go back one. But we must press forward. We cannot allow the bigot, the hater, the rabble rouser to take over.

In our churches and synagogues, in our schools, and most importantly—in our homes—we must strive day in and day out to educate all within our scope to cast out prejudice and unfair criticism so that we can all live together in safety and harmony.

Hint to Banks: Savings Goals Have Changed

By RUTH MILLETT

Do you know what the "seven ages of saving" are?

Well, I know what my bank THINKS they are. Intrigued by the title, I picked up a little folder in the bank the other day called "The Seven Ages of Saving" and found they go like this: Saving for a bike. Saving for college. Saving to start a business.

The House of Art

By CYRENE DEAR (DP&R Special Service)

NEW YORK — Like a ship in dry dock, the controversial Guggenheim Museum, designed by the dean of modern architects, Frank Lloyd Wright, stands in the midst of brick and mortar on New York's Fifth Avenue.

It has the look of a ship except its lines are spherical instead of elliptical. It needs acres of green around it to show it off as an architectural phenomenon but where can you get them in New York City?

The Guggenheim Museum was built to house the Solomon R. Guggenheim collection of modern art. It is the fluid gracefully curved lines of the interior which thrill the visitor with their unusual design. The theme of Mr. Wright's creation is "the oval seed pod containing globular units." This theme is evident everywhere, in the oval water pool and the fountain on the main floor and the auditorium and the cafeteria which are circular in shape.

The Guggenheim is an Art Museum and the spiral ramp which extends from the main to the fifth floor is for visitors to view the paintings that seem to be floating in air on the walls as you pass. Most people take the elevator, which is also oval, to the top floor and then slowly descend the ramps to view the paintings.

The collection contains some of the most modern art in the world and as such we must be indebted to the late Mr. Guggenheim as well as to the late Mr. Wright.

The largest number of paintings are by Kandinsky, probably not known to many except those with a knowledge of modern art. Some are masterpieces of color, others of geometric design. It is difficult for the novice to understand what the artist was trying to portray, but at least you can appreciate that this school of art is something which some people love and understand. There are three different paintings called "Nude Descending the Stairs," which would not be recognized as such unless properly labeled.

It was reassuring to recognize a few familiar pictures by Dali, Cezanne and Picasso from periods preceding Kandinsky. The famous painting by Rousseau of the monkeys in the jungle needed no label and was a welcome sight in contrast to the more nonunderstandable works.

The point is not whether you like or understand modern art. The point is that a man like Solomon R. Guggenheim cared enough about this phase in our culture to preserve it through a foundation, and that the foundation commissioned an architect like Frank Lloyd Wright to erect a suitable house for this type of art.

Saving to get married. Saving for a home. Saving for a trip abroad or any other pleasure. Saving for old age security. Somehow I suspect that whoever wrote the folder was thinking back to how things used to be, rather than looking at how they are.

Junior probably got his bike almost as soon as he asked for it, or at least by the time he could claim that he was the only kid on the block who didn't have one. Parents today don't hold with making their children save for the things they want.

Chances are the high school boy who is saving his money isn't saving for college, but for a hot rod. He has to have that car BEFORE he can put his mind on anything else.

Saving to start a business. Most young men seem to be taking jobs that offer the most security, instead of saving to strike out on their own.

Saving to get married. Are they kidding? A young man today doesn't feel he has to have money in the bank in order to propose to a girl. Better than a bank account is a girl who has a job or is willing to go out and get one.

Saving for a home. Sure enough, that one hasn't changed. A home of their own is still the big goal for most young couples and well one worth saving for.

Saving for pleasure and saving for old age hasn't changed, either. Though to hear some politicians talk, Uncle Sam owes it to all his nieces and nephews to relieve them of the responsibility of saving for the latter.

Democrat Pick-ups

By News Staff

A GROUP OF women have a little club where they meet once a month and eat. Each one is supposed to bring a covered dish and the hostess tells them what she wants them to bring. Usually two people take the dessert.

When the hostess tried to call the members there was one she just couldn't seem to get hold of. She had put her down for dessert, so she asked the other woman who was to be in on the dessert to tell her when she called her. "Sure," she said, when the woman called her, "I'll be there and I'll fix the dessert." So everything was set.

Well the woman who was going to fix the dessert is a very busy person, and she usually is late, but not an hour late. The hostess was in a dither. After all she hadn't talked to her.

"Are you certain she is coming?" somebody asked.

"Sure," said the woman who was to have the dessert with her. "How do you know?" questioned someone.

"Because she is bringing the dessert," came the reply.

But she didn't come and she didn't come, and at last someone suggested that the hostess call her. She called her home, but there was no answer. Then she called her place of business. Sure enough, there she was.

"Are you coming tonight?" asked the hostess.

"Coming where?" she wanted to know.

"To club," and it was like a ton of bricks that fell on her. "Is that tonight. I thought it was tomorrow night."

"Go on and eat," she told the hostess. "I'll be there." She and her husband and little girl rushed home where she hurriedly threw together the dessert that was supposed to stand in the refrigerator overnight. She had plenty of help from her family, who was in as much of a stew as she was, and who are usually in a stew because she is.

She finally got there with the dessert, which looked and tasted perfect. But after she had finished her dinner and served the dessert she suddenly dashed in from the kitchen with a jar of cherries which she had intended to put on top in honor of George Washington's birthday. She didn't know why she should be honoring George Washington, it was his birthday that made her lose a day in the first place, but she decked each piece of dessert with a cherry.

However this wasn't the only disturbance. Somebody had called her and told her she was supposed to be at Convention Hall that night for a bean and ham dinner and was to take a covered dish. She didn't know who was having the bean and ham dinner, she didn't know who called her, and she tried to argue them out of it. But they insisted she was to take a covered dish to Convention Hall — which she didn't do. She was doing well to get to her own little club with a dessert. She was curious though as to what was going on at Convention Hall and what she was missing out on, because she just doesn't like to miss out on anything, and she likes to keep up on what's going on in the town. Now she'll never be satisfied until she finds out about the bean and ham dinner.

Many Factors Can Upset Efficiency of Your Colon

By Harold Thomas Hyman, M.D.

Of the many who inquire about "colitis," probably few have the affliction in the true sense of the word. For "colitis" means inflammation of the colon. And, while inflammatory diseases of the colon do occur, they are relatively rare unless they're part of a general infection of the entire digestive tract.

To clarify my meaning, let me first explain what the colon is and how it functions. The colon is a reservoir for what's left of food stuffs after they've been assorted in the upper bowel. It begins in the lower right side, rises to a site under the ribs (ascending colon), crosses the pit of the stomach to the left side (transverse colon), drops directly down to the lower left quadrant (descending colon) and then makes a pretzel-like turn to form the sigmoid loop so-called because of its resemblance to the Greek "S."

Now a lot of things can go sour on the way. You can get traffic jams at the junctions of ascending and transverse and descending loops. In the former instance, you report gas pains in the region of liver and gall bladder, in the latter, just under the heart.

Then the transverse loop, instead of going straight across, may hang down like a hammock swung between trees. That causes traffic jams all over. Under liver and gall bladder. Under Heart. And deep down at the bottom of the hammock.

But that's not all. When dried refuse starts to loop the loop in the sigmoid, it may clog the whole works like a wad of cotton in the trap under your sink. And all this time, you may be having regular bowel movements of a sort. Never complete, of course, but enough to make you think your plumbing is functioning satisfactorily.

To the refuse that never seems to be fully eliminated, your colon reacts in several ways. It may make special efforts to rid itself of the material and end up by clamping down to make matters worse (spastic colitis). It may pour forth secretion to loosen and lubricate the unwelcome residue (Mucus colitis). But, either way, it only succeeds in sending "hurry calls," usually at the most embarrassing moments. You may think you have the "trots"; actually, you are behind schedule.

More often than not, treatment increases your difficulties. Sedatives add to bowel stoppage. Cathartics increase the clamping action of the spastic sigmoid. Roughage diets and bulk laxatives contribute to the traffic jam. Anti-inflammatory drugs are useless since the colon is the victim, not the cause, of the disturbance.

Because your colonic tie-up may be due to serious disease, especially cancer, you should see your doctor who will probably want to have you X-rayed after you have been given a barium mixture both by enema and by mouth.

Then, if your problem is reduced to a mere traffic jam, he may be able to give you relief by prescribing regular doses of a nonmedicated mineral oil so as to "grease the skids" from above.

And he may suggest an occasional oil enema to help expulsion of dried material in the sigmoid loop.

'Spare Rod,' 'Spoil Child' Is Not a Biblical Edict

By Mrs. Muriel Lawrence

Dear Madam:

You should be thrown off the newspaper. The grandmother who told that daughter-in-law to whip her two-year-old's hands for throwing his mug on the floor is worth a million of you. My mother often blistered my hands when I was a small boy to teach me right from wrong. You and your modern notions go against God and the Bible which says "Spare the rod and spoil the child."

ANSWER: All right, sir. I'm squaring off. Let's go.

I have hinted at your error before. This time I'm going to town on it. This time I have not only checked my own Bible concordances — and failed to find your savage quotation. This time I have also checked with the library of Union Theological Seminary, my city's seat of theological learning — and the library has failed to find it.

Your un-modern, King James version Bible does not contain the line: "Spare the rod and spoil the child."

What's modern, sir, is your phrase. It was coined by an American journalist who died in 1896 — a man named Finley Peter Dunne.

So you are alone with your faith in the virtue of blistering children's bodies to teach them right from wrong. Now stand up for it alone — and stop falsifying the Word of God to support you. I doubt that you will.

The people who falsely endow this catch-phrase with scriptural authority are seldom able to stand up without support. They have been leaneers from a long way back. They still trust the moral views of the parents who blistered their hands as children, though a little examination would prove these views as unreliable as their biblical scholarship. And they will go on believing in them just as they'll go on believing that a nearly forgotten journalist's words are Holy Writ.

We who are struggling for wisdom as parents constantly examine our ideas of right and wrong. We know that any growth in us includes changes in these ideas. Along with Abraham Lincoln, we are content with "firmness in the right so far as God gives us to see the right." A little right is what we've learned to settle for.

So if we slap children's hands, we don't claim moral grandeur for our action.

matter of FACT

Have trouble with your spelling? So did some of our famous ancestors. George Washington was careful with unusual words — then misspelled the easy ones. He wrote "oyl" for oil, "blew" for blue, and "pair" for pear. But Washington can be excused — he had little formal education, yet left one of the largest collection of papers written by one person.

Striped College 4-H Holds Safety Program

Fifty-two members and 15 visitors were present at the Striped College 4-H Club meeting Wednesday at the Striped College School.

An interesting panel discussion on safety by the Safety Committee members was presented. Sandra Lewellen, chairman of the committee, with Kim Dabner and Karen DeMotte discussed some of the safety hazards that cause most of our accidents. Also, the safety check tests which had been given to each member at the previous meeting were collected.

Also at the meeting demonstrations were given as follows, Kathy Rages on "How to Test a Needle for Straightness," William Wehmer on "How to Mark a Pig's Ear," Johnny Gardner, "How to Mark Off a Pattern with a Coping Saw," Charles Leiter, "How to

LaMonte Cemetery To Remodel Entrance

Lyman Wharton, member of the LaMonte Cemetery committee, has reported that remodeling will be done on the cemetery entrance.

The archway will be moved approximately 20 feet forward to allow access to the west road, which up to the present time has been used only as an exit since the left turn was too sharp to be made by cars entering under the archway. Old fencing on either side of the arch will be replaced by new.

The work is to be completed within the next few weeks.

Special Dishes

ALL IN ONE CASSEROLE

Mrs. Orville Hinck
Sweet Springs, Mo.
1 pkg. (8-oz.) elbow macaroni
3 tbsps. fat
1 lb. ground beef
1 No. 2 can corn (whole kernel)
1 can tomato soup
1 large onion

Cook macaroni in boiling salted water 10-12 minutes. Drain. Brown meat and onion in melted fat in heavy skillet. Add salt and pepper. Arrange alternating layers of macaroni, meat and corn in a greased two quart casserole. Heat soup in the skillet, pour over casserole and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) 30 minutes. Serves six.

SEVEN LAYER CASEROLE

Mrs. Evelyn R. Kellner
Box 188, Smithton, Mo.
1 cup uncooked rice
1 cup whole kernel corn, drained
Salt and pepper
2 cans (8-oz.) tomato sauce
3/4 can water
1/2 cup onion, finely chopped
1/2 cup green pepper, finely chopped
1/2 cup green lima beans
3/4 lb. ground beef, uncooked
4 large strips bacon, cut in half

Put rice and corn in a casserole; sprinkle with salt and pepper. Pour can of tomato sauce and 3/4 can water over this mixture. Add onion, pepper and beans. Place ground beef on top of these ingredients. Sprinkle a little more salt and pepper on meat. Pour on second can of tomato sauce and 3/4 can of water. Cover ground beef with bacon strips. Cover with tight fitting lid and bake at 350 degrees for one hour. Uncover and bake about 30 minutes longer, until bacon is crisp. Makes four to six servings.

FRENCH FRIED POTATO PUFFS

Mrs. Jettie L. Lawson
631 North Osage, Sedalia
2 cups leftover mashed potatoes
2 eggs, well beaten
4 slices crumbled crisp bacon
1 cup sifted flour
2 tps. baking powder
1 tsp. salt

Preheat skillet or frying pan with fat or cooking oil about 1 1/2 inches deep. Combine the first three ingredients. Sift flour, baking powder and salt. Stir into the potato mixture and blend well. Drop by spoonfuls into the hot fat. Fry three to five minutes or until brown. Drain on absorbent paper. Makes six servings.

PICKLE BEAN BAKE

Mrs. Evelyn R. Kellner
Box 188, Smithton, Mo.
1 lb. navy beans
Water
1 can (1-lb. 13-oz.) tomatoes
3 medium dill pickles, chopped
1/2 cup sorghum molasses
1/2 cup olive or salad oil
1 medium green pepper, chopped
1 medium-size onion, chopped
Salt and pepper to taste
8 large (all meat) frankfurters
Dill pickles, sliced thin
1 cup grated cheddar cheese

Wash beans; put in kettle and cover with water. Cover kettle and cook over low heat two hours. Drain. Combine beans, tomatoes, chopped pickles, molasses, oil, green pepper, onion, salt and pepper to taste. Mix well. Pour into a three-quart casserole. Cover and bake in a slow oven 325 degrees for 1 1/4 hours. Uncover and bake 1 1/4 hours or until beans are tender. Cut slits in frankfurters without cutting all the way through. Fill the slits with cheese and thin sliced pickles. Arrange on top of the beans. Bake 15 minutes longer or until the cheese is melted and franks lightly browned. Makes eight servings.

BAKED AVOCADOS

Mrs. Jettie L. Lawson
631 North Osage, Sedalia
Cut avocados in halves and fill with creamed crab meat. Bake in covered pan for 20 minutes in 400 degree oven.

CHEESE STRATA

Mrs. Jettie L. Lawson
631 North Osage, Sedalia
3 cups milk
8 slices white bread cut into one-inch squares
2 cups grated cheese (sharp cooking cheese preferred)
3 eggs
1 tsp. salt

Place one-half of bread cubes in bottom of casserole and cover with one cup cheese. Place balance of bread over this layer and cover with balance of cheese. Combine milk, eggs and salt and pour this custard over bread and cheese. Bake about one hour and 15 minutes in 300 degree oven.

CORN AND SALMON AU GRATIN

Mrs. Jettie L. Lawson
631 North Osage, Sedalia
2 cups salmon (canned)
2 cups corn
1/2 cup evaporated milk
1/2 cup grated sharp cheese
1/2 cup broken potato chips (or cracker crumbs)
1 tbs. melted butter

Mix corn, salmon and milk and place in a casserole dish. Sprinkle crumbs and cheese on top and bake in moderate oven (350-375 degrees) about 30 minutes. If preferred, omit cheese and pour 1/2 can mushroom soup over top with crumbs.

SCALLOPED OYSTERS

Mrs. Jettie L. Lawson
631 North Osage, Sedalia
1 qt. oysters
4 tbsps. butter or margarine
4 tbsps. flour
1 cup hot milk
1 cup oyster liquid
Salt and pepper (to taste)
1 cup bread crumbs
mixed with

Remove oysters from liquid. Pick them over carefully to remove any pieces of shell. Strain liquid. Melt butter, add flour, milk, and oyster liquid. Season. Put alternate layers of oysters and sauce in greased baking dish. Cover with crumbs. Bake until heated through and browned. Moderate oven (375 degrees). Makes about six servings.

STUFFED BAKED APPLES

Mrs. Jettie L. Lawson
631 North Osage, Sedalia
8 large baking apples
1 can corned beef hash
1/4 cup cream
1 tbs. instant minced onion
1/4 cup catsup or chili sauce
Grated Parmesan or Romano cheese

Core apples; peel about one-third of the way from the stem to the blossom end. Carefully scoop out some of the pulp, leaving a shell about 1/2-inch thick. Chop pulp; combine with corned beef hash. Combine cream, onion and catsup, let stand ten minutes. Add to hash mixture; mix well. Fill apple shells with hash mixture. Sprinkle with cheese. Place in pre-heated oven (350 degrees) and bake for 30 minutes or until apples are tender. Serve with crisp bacon strips and a green vegetable. Serves eight.

LOUISIANA OYSTER AND SWEETBREAD PIE

Mrs. Jettie L. Lawson
631 North Osage, Sedalia
Soak a pair sweetbreads for an hour, then par boil them for 15 minutes with a little salt and lemon juice. Rinse them again in cold water and finally, carefully remove all membrane. Line a deep pie dish with your favorite pastry. Dice the sweetbreads. Clean and inspect carefully two dozen small oysters. Open a can of button mushrooms and drain them. Arrange alternate layers of sweetbreads, oysters and mushrooms, seasoning each layer with salt and pepper and a few grains of nutmeg. Pour on 1 1/2 cups, or a little more if needed, of heated sweet cream or medium thick white sauce. Put on the top crust and perforate. Seal the top and bottom crusts and bake in a 450 degree oven for 10 minutes. Reduce heat to 350 degrees and bake for 15 minutes.

CHILI

Mrs. Joseph Kabler
720 East 15th, Sedalia
1 lb. ground beef
1 can chili-ettes
(Mexican beans in chili gravy)
1 1/2 qts. canned tomatoes
1/2 pkg. chili seasoning (more or less to suit taste)
1 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper

Brown beef and chopped onion slowly. Stir occasionally to brown evenly and break up all pieces. The finer the meat the better. Add chili-ettes, tomatoes and seasoning. Bring to a full boil and simmer for 20 or 30 minutes. Let set to improve flavor.

Canned Goods, Pickles, Relishes

HARVARD BEETS

Rev. Doyle Ross Mabry
208 West 17th, Sedalia
1 No. 2 can beets
2 tbsps. butter
1 tbs. corn starch
1/4 tsp. onion juice
2 tbsps. cider vinegar
1/4 tsp. salt
Black pepper to suit taste
1 1/2 tsp. sugar

Drain beets, saving liquid. Melt butter, blend in corn starch, add beet liquid and stir constantly over direct heat until sauce boils and thickens. Add remaining ingredients and the beets. Continue heating slowly until beets are hot through. Makes five servings. Cooked fresh beets may be used, substituting water for the beet juice.

COOKED CRANBERRIES

Mrs. Emma D. Kreisler
Route 2, Lincoln
1 qt. cranberries
1 cup water
2 cups sugar
Cook sugar and water a few minutes. Then add cranberries. Cook until cranberries burst open.
